UNIVERSITY’S MISSION STATEMENT

James B. Duke’s founding Indenture of Duke University directed the members of the University to “provide real leadership in the educational world” by choosing individuals of “outstanding character, ability, and vision” to serve as its officers, trustees and faculty; by carefully selecting students of “character, determination and application;” and by pursuing those areas of teaching and scholarship that would “most help to develop our resources, increase our wisdom, and promote human happiness.”

To these ends, the mission of Duke University is to provide a superior liberal education to undergraduate students, attending not only to their intellectual growth but also to their development as adults committed to high ethical standards and full participation as leaders in their communities; to prepare future members of the learned professions for lives of skilled and ethical service by providing excellent graduate and professional education; to advance the frontiers of knowledge and contribute boldly to the international community of scholarship; to promote an intellectual environment built on a commitment to free and open inquiry; to help those who suffer, cure disease, and promote health, through sophisticated medical research and thoughtful patient care; to provide wide ranging educational opportunities, on and beyond our campuses, for traditional students, active professionals and life-long learners using the power of information technologies; and to promote a deep appreciation for the range of human difference and potential, a sense of the obligations and rewards of citizenship, and a commitment to learning, freedom and truth.

By pursuing these objectives with vision and integrity, Duke University seeks to engage the mind, elevate the spirit, and stimulate the best effort of all who are associated with the University; to contribute in diverse ways to the local community, the state, the nation and the world; and to attain and maintain a place of real leadership in all that we do.

- Adopted by the Board of Trustees on February 23, 2001
The information in this bulletin applies to the academic year 2019-2020 and is accurate and current, to the extent possible, as of July 2019. The university reserves the right to change programs of study, academic requirements, teaching staff, the calendar, and other matters described herein without prior notice, in accordance with established procedures.

Duke University is committed to encouraging and sustaining a learning and work community that is free from harassment and prohibited discrimination. The university prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including pregnancy), gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, religion, genetic information, age, disability, or veteran status (collectively, “protected status” or “protected characteristics”); this includes discrimination and harassment based on the perception of an individual’s protected status, even if that perception is incorrect. It also prohibits misconduct related to protected status discrimination and harassment, specifically, relationship violence and stalking. This applies to the administration of employment and educational policies, practices, programs, and activities.

Duke University has designated Kimberly Hewitt, Vice President for Institutional Equity, as the individual responsible for the coordination and administration of its nondiscrimination and harassment policies generally. The Office for Institutional Equity is located in Smith Warehouse, 114 S. Buchanan Blvd., Bay 8, Durham, North Carolina 27708; 919-684-8222; kimberly.hewitt@duke.edu.

Sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, including relationship violence and stalking, are forms of sex discrimination and prohibited. Duke University has designated Jayne Grandes as the Assistant Vice President for Title IX Compliance. She is also within the Office for Institutional Equity, and can be contacted at 919-660-5766 or jayne.grandes@duke.edu.

Questions or comments about discrimination, harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking can be directed to the Office for Institutional Equity, 919-684-8222. Questions or comments about sex-based and sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking committed by a student can be directed to the Office of Student Conduct at 919-684-6938. Additional information, including the complete text of the university’s discrimination and harassment policies and appropriate complaint procedures, may be obtained by contacting the Office for Institutional Equity at oie.duke.edu or the Office of Student Conduct at studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 20 U.S.C § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99, is a federal law that guides the release of students’ education records, of which disciplinary records are a part. For additional information about FERPA, see www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html.

Duke University is prepared to make reasonable academic adjustments and accommodations to allow students with disabilities full participation in the same programs and activities available to students without disabilities. The Student Disability Access Office assists students with disabilities who are enrolled in Trinity College and the Pratt School of Engineering. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a student must have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities such as, but not limited to, hearing, seeing, speaking, breathing, performing manual tasks, walking, caring for oneself, and learning. Substantially limiting refers to an impairment that prevents an individual from performing a major life activity or significantly restricts the condition, manner, or duration under which an individual can perform a major life activity.

Students requesting accommodations under the provisions of Section 504 or the ADA (e.g., academic, housing, etc.) must consult Dot Mishoe, director, Student Disability Access Office, 919-684-8231 or 919-668-1329 TTY, to explore possible coverage. Students with medical conditions not covered under the provisions of ADA must consult Duke Student Health Services at 919-681-9355 for further information.

Duke University recognizes and utilizes electronic mail as a medium for official communications. The university provides all students with e-mail accounts as well as access to e-mail services from public clusters if students do not have personal computers of their own. All students are expected to access their e-mail accounts on a regular basis to check for and respond as necessary to such communications. Students are also required to provide an accurate local physical address and a cell phone number through DukeHub.

Information that the university is required to make available under the Student Right to Know and Campus Security Acts may be obtained from University Communications at 919-684-2823 or in writing to 614 Chapel Drive, Box 90563, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina 27708.

Duke University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to award baccalaureate, masters, doctorate, and professional degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Duke University.

DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD
STUDENTS’ OBLIGATION TO ACT WITH RESPECT TO THE DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD

The Duke Community Standard (DCS) stresses the commitment that students share with all members of the community to enhance the climate for honesty, fairness, respect, and accountability at Duke University. Students affirm their commitment to foster this climate by signing a pledge that includes taking constructive action if they witness or know about behavior they perceive to be inconsistent with the DCS, which may include violation of university policies. Although there are no disciplinary sanctions associated with the failure to act, students are nonetheless expected to take action—to do something—as a responsibility of membership in the Duke community.

The university recognizes that it is not always easy to act in these situations, but several alternatives are available to suit a student’s level of comfort and confidence. These alternatives are not mutually exclusive.

- Speaking directly with the individual exhibiting the behavior, both to gain clarity about the situation and to inform the individual about the concern.
- Publicly calling attention to the behavior as it is occurring.
- For incidents involving social behaviors, alerting residence hall, Student Affairs, or other university staff. The information provided will give staff an opportunity to address the matter informally or through appropriate formal channels.
- For cases involving academic integrity, alerting the instructor that cheating may be occurring in the course. This alert can be in any form, including anonymous notification, and the reporting student will not be identified. The information provided will allow the faculty member to consider corrective measures, in consultation with the Office of Student Conduct, and to address the topic with the class or suspected student(s).
- Directly alerting staff in the Office of Student Conduct (919-684-6938; conduct@duke.edu), who will confer with the faculty member involved, if an academic issue, or with the reporting student(s), strategizing next steps. Maintaining the confidentiality of the source is possible, but may limit the extent of action that can be taken.

THE CONTEXT OF THE DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD

The honor code at Duke is named the community standard because community is at the center of our conception of what it means to act honorably. Community entails a sense of connectedness to others and their welfare, feeling part of Duke University every day and being responsible for its continual improvement. Community refers as well to a feeling of connection to the city in which we are located. It posits the counterbalancing of group benefit with individual needs and wants, and a Duke identity with the many personal identities based on demographics and interest. The kind of environment we strive to achieve is one in which civility (but not docility) reigns; an environment in which ideas are promulgated, and challenged, in a stimulating give and take; an environment in which learning (whether from peers, faculty, administrators, or others in the Duke and broader communities) is accomplished with openness, honesty, and respect.
Citizens of the Duke community commit to acting with purpose, civility, and intention, both with personal decision-making and with interactions with each member of this community. Choosing to be a citizen of the Duke community means acknowledging the value of each member, participating in active reflection and asking the question: “How do my actions impact others?”

The honor code at Duke is named the community standard because it expresses our institution’s core values and a concomitant set of expectations for behavior. Because behavior is derivative of fundamental values, the standard applies off campus as well as on. The principles it articulates, while lofty in one sense, are firmly grounded in individual decisions made on the ground every day about every aspect of undergraduate life, in academic and co-curricular activities alike: in the classroom, residence halls, K-ville, off-campus apartment complexes, Myrtle Beach, Paris, and wherever else students may go. In addition, the standard asks that students not only reflect on their own behavior, as important as that is, but that they also act to encourage the integrity of their peers. By inspiring and supporting each other, students can shape their environment so that it reflects the ideals expressed in the Duke Community Standard.

The Standard, therefore, expresses our goals for undergraduate education in the broadest sense and is foundational to undergraduate life at Duke. It is followed by an equally important pledge that students sign as members of the community.

Duke University seeks to engage all students in its tradition of honor, a tradition that defines the institution and helps to guide students during their college careers and beyond. The students here today, who are the beneficiaries of the efforts of those who preceded them, have an extraordinarily important role to play in perpetuating and strengthening this tradition. We welcome, and count on, your involvement.

THE HISTORY OF THE DUKE COMMUNITY STANDARD

In 1999-2000, Duke participated in a national survey through the Center for Academic Integrity. Through responses from undergraduate students, as well as from faculty and staff, the survey assessed the climate of academic integrity at Duke in comparative context with other institutions. As a result of the findings, the provost formed the Academic Integrity Council (AIC) in 2001 by appointing representatives from across the community whose charge was to review academic integrity policies and practices and make recommendations to improve the climate of integrity on campus.

An early goal of the AIC was to review the existing Honor Code, which had been in effect for the undergraduate community since 1993. The AIC determined that the Honor Code needed revision to make it shorter while embracing all aspects of a student’s life at Duke. A major element of the revision was the inclusion of the fundamental values that must inform the definition of a community of honor.

This Duke Community Standard was proposed to the faculty councils of Trinity College of Arts and Sciences and the Pratt School of Engineering, as well as to the Duke Student Government. It was approved for the undergraduate community and implemented in the fall of 2003. The Standard was also incorporated into the code of each graduate and professional school of the university and, thus, represents the values we uphold as an institution.

Duke University is committed to ongoing evaluation of principles, policies, and practices, and to lively conversation about issues of integrity. Thus, Duke participated again in a national survey on academic integrity in the fall of 2005 and in intensive discussions of academic and social integrity from summer 2006 through spring 2007. The result of these continuing and broadened discussions was a revised Community Standard, put before the undergraduate student body in a student government referendum of April 2007 and overwhelmingly approved. Implemented in summer 2007, the new Duke Community Standard differs from its predecessor chiefly in its level of commitment to taking action (see “Students’ Obligation to Act with Respect to the Duke Community Standard” on page 12).

In the spring of 2011, Duke University again surveyed undergraduate students about integrity, this time expanding beyond an academic focus to additional questions about integrity in other domains (i.e., social, work, and civic) inside and outside the classroom. In-depth focus interviews were also conducted with a sample of graduating seniors. Results showed a marked reduction in academic dishonesty in three key areas that were identified as problem areas in the 2005 survey: fabricating or falsifying a bibliography, falsifying or fabricating lab data, and copying or paraphrasing a few sentences without appropriate attribution. One area of concern that emerged from the 2011 survey was an increase in reported unauthorized collaboration. There was also a gap between students’ perceptions of the prevalence of dishonesty across these multiple domains and students’ self-reported rates of engaging in dishonest acts within these domains. Duke University will continue efforts to narrow students’ perception of the frequency of academic dishonesty and actual self-reported rates of cheating and other dishonest acts.
A STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLES

The Duke Community Standard expresses a standard for behavior—a set of expectations of students who claim membership in Duke’s learning community. All incoming undergraduates, upon admittance to Duke, are required to sign a pledge to adhere to these values and to conduct themselves in accordance with these values throughout their undergraduate careers. Likewise, upon completion of each academic assignment, students may be asked to reaffirm their commitment to the Duke Community Standard by signing a statement indicating that they have adhered to the Duke Community Standard in completing the assignment.

The Duke Community Standard, thus, is a statement of principles. The specific policies, or rules and regulations of the university, define the conduct for which students can be held accountable.

HOW WILL YOU ACT?

“I will speak out against bigotry and sexism.”

“I will do my best work on assignments and exams without cheating, and if I find myself in a time crunch, I will contact my instructor to discuss options.”

“I will consider the impact of my actions on my neighbors.”

“I will call for medical attention for an intoxicated friend.”

“I will be a champion for academic integrity.”

“I will refuse to participate in activities that conflict with my values and beliefs.”
Duke University has high expectations for students’ scholarship and conduct. In accepting admission, students indicate their willingness to subscribe to and be governed by the rules and regulations of the university, which flow from the Duke Community Standard. These policies reflect the Duke Community Standard’s fundamental values—honesty, fairness, respect, and accountability.

Undergraduates acknowledge the right of the university to take disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion, for failure to abide by the regulations or for other conduct adjudged unsatisfactory or detrimental to the university community.

Students and groups may be held accountable for any violation of university policy that may or may not be included in this guide, whether on or off campus. In addition to local ordinances and state and federal laws, the following policies govern the undergraduate community.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

LYING

Lying is communicating untruths or misrepresentations in order to gain an unfair academic or employment advantage. [Wording adopted from the Duke Fuqua School of Business code.]

It includes, but is not limited to:

- falsifying information on documents, such as résumés, applications, or references;
- misrepresenting one’s own research;
- providing false or misleading information in order to be excused from classes or assignments; or
- intentionally underperforming on a placement exam.

CHEATING

Cheating is the act of wrongfully using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, study aids, or the ideas or work of another in order to gain an unfair advantage. It includes, but is not limited to:

- plagiarism on any assignment;
- giving unauthorized aid to another student or receiving unauthorized aid from another person on tests, quizzes, assignments, or examinations;
- using or consulting unauthorized materials or using unauthorized equipment or devices on tests, quizzes, assignments, or examinations;
- altering or falsifying any information on tests, quizzes, assignments, or examinations;
- using any material portion of a paper or project to fulfill the requirements of more than one course unless the student has received prior faculty permission to do so;
- working on any examination, test, quiz, or assignment outside of the time constraints imposed;
- the unauthorized use of prescription medication to enhance academic performance;
- submitting an altered examination or assignment to an instructor for re-grading; or
- failing to adhere to an instructor’s specific directions with respect to the terms of academic integrity or academic honesty.

“Plagiarism” occurs when a student, with intent to deceive or with disregard for proper scholarly procedures, presents any information, ideas, or phrasing of another as if they were the student’s own and/or does not give appropriate credit to the original source. Proper scholarly procedures require that all quoted material be identified by quotation marks or indentation on the page, and the source of information and ideas, if from another, must be identified and be attributed to that source. Students are responsible for learning proper scholarly procedures.
Plagiarism may include:

- copying from published sources without adequate documentation ([1] use of quotation marks around verbatim text, or a block quote if verbatim text exceeds 40-50 words; and [2] in-text references or footnotes, both for verbatim text and paraphrased words/ideas);
- citing an incorrect source for attributed work;
- paraphrasing words or ideas of another without giving credit;
- using the same logic/flow/sentence structure of another without giving credit;
- submitting as your own someone else’s unpublished work, either with or without permission;
- paying someone else to write a paper for you; or,
- purchasing a pre-written paper.

The term “assignment” includes any work, required or volunteered, submitted for review, academic credit, and/or disciplinary sanction.

All academic work undertaken by a student must be completed independently unless the faculty member or other responsible authority expressly authorizes collaboration with another.

STEALING
Stealing is the act of intentionally taking or appropriating the property of another, including academic work, without consent or permission and with the intent to keep or use the property without the permission of the owner or the rightful possessor.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Freedom of inquiry and the free exchange of ideas are essential for the fulfillment of the university’s mission. Academic freedom is a right and responsibility of students as well as faculty. Students who believe that their academic freedom has been abridged should submit a written complaint to their academic dean. The dean may enlist the faculty in establishing the merits or extent of the complaint by appointing a disinterested two-person subcommittee of the Faculty Hearing Committee to provide advice. Cases not resolved by the dean may be brought to the attention of the provost. Students may also seek advice of the student ombudsperson in resolving a complaint.

ADVERTISEMENTS

BANNERS
Banners on the exterior or interior of the Brodhead Center, East Union Building, Bryan Center, and the Plaza are approved and installed by University Center Activities and Events. Housing and Residence Life approves banners on the exterior/interior of residence halls (contact the appropriate Residence Coordinator). Banners attached to residential buildings are limited to five feet by five feet in dimension (or smaller) and may not cover the windows of a room in a manner that impedes egress. Banners may not have objects hanging from them (normally used to weigh banner down). Only banners or flags can be hung outside of windows. Requests for hanging banners on all other university buildings and light poles must be approved by Facilities Management located at Smith Warehouse, Bay 1 (919-684-2122). Contact Facilities Management, University Center Activities and Events, or Housing and Residence Life for specific guidelines. All exterior banners (including flags) in residential areas must be removed by the last day of classes each semester.

CHALKING
Chalking is prohibited on any surface, including, but not limited to, sidewalks, archways, and benches.
POSTERS, ANNOUNCEMENTS, AND BULLETIN BOARDS
The following is a checklist of procedures with reference to the posting of notices on university bulletin boards, building doors, containers, light posts, trees, and sidewalks:

- Posters/flyers must provide information regarding student activities, give information of an academic nature, make announcements pertinent to the business of the university, or supply information to members of the Duke community regarding available campus services or products.
- Posters/flyers must state the name of the sponsoring organization, business, department, or person responsible.
- As appropriate for the surface, staples, thumbtacks, magnets, masking tape, or transparent tape may be used to attach posters/flyers to approved bulletin boards or posting areas. The use of glue, nails, and duct tape or any other heavy-duty tape is prohibited.
- Posters/flyers must never be attached to doors, windows, trashcans, entryways, exteriors of buildings, interior walls, stairway railings, floors, benches or ceilings, nor may they be placed on the windshields of parked automobiles or on sidewalks.
- Posters/flyers may NOT be attached or affixed to any tree or utility pole.
- Posters/flyers (and the fasteners used to attach them) must be removed within three days after the advertised event.
- All posters/flyers may be periodically removed from bulletin boards as part of routine maintenance.

ALCOHOL

HEALTH AND SAFETY INTERVENTION
Because health and safety of students are of primary importance, students are encouraged not only to look out for their own health and safety but also for that of their peers. When a person’s health and/or safety is/are threatened or appear(s) to be in jeopardy, immediate action should be taken to prevent injury/illness/danger. Dial 911 (or 919-684-2444 if you are on campus) for help. Whatever the particular need/problem, it is important to respond in a responsible and timely manner.

Formal disciplinary action for a violation of the Alcohol Policy will not be taken against students for whom medical assistance is sought, or against those who seek medical assistance for themselves or for others, provided that the student/group has not violated university policies that warrant formal disciplinary action.

A student who receives medical assistance may be required to meet with a substance abuse specialist in DuWell for education, assessment, and possible referral for treatment. The student may also be required to complete an educational assignment. Parents of such students may also be notified. A group that facilitates the acquisition of alcohol may also be required to notify its advisor, provide an educational program for members, and/or change its processes for hosting events.

In the event that a student fails to meet with the specialist, chooses not to participate in the outlined expectations, or exhibits a pattern of abusive behavior with alcohol and/or other substances, the student may be subject to formal disciplinary action.

A panel of the Undergraduate Conduct Board will be informed of a student who has received “amnesty” under this provision of the Alcohol Policy should the student be subsequently found responsible for a violation of policy related to substance use for purposes of effective sanctioning.

UNIVERSITY-WIDE POLICY
As a community of scholars and learners, Duke University expects those within its community to be responsible with the use of alcohol. This policy shall guide the role of alcohol everywhere on the Duke campus and at all events sponsored by Duke organizations, schools, or administrative units. Students, staff, and faculty members are encouraged to learn about the social, physiological, and psychological consequences of drinking and alcohol abuse.
Excessive and high-risk drinking can lead to negative consequences for the Duke community, including assault, illness, injury, litter, noise, property damage, and driving under the influence. All members of the Duke community share responsibility for creating an environment that limits dangerous drinking behaviors and, therefore, reduces the likelihood of these negative outcomes.

The following shall guide the role of alcohol in the Duke community:

- All possession, consumption, and distribution of alcohol at Duke University shall be in accordance with applicable North Carolina state laws.
- Members of the Duke community are responsible for behaving in a manner that is not disruptive or endangering to themselves or others. Being under the influence of alcohol shall not be a mitigating factor for an individual’s behavior.
- When persons under 21 years of age can reasonably be expected to be present at an event, proper precautions must be taken to restrict distribution and consumption of alcohol to persons of legal drinking age. Student organizations shall also adhere to the specific guidelines for events outlined in The Duke Community Standard in Practice: A Guide for Undergraduates (for student organizations that cater primarily to undergraduates) or the Graduate and Professional Student Alcohol Policy (for student organizations that cater primarily to graduate/professional students).
- Advertising or other communication that references the availability of alcohol at a function may neither promote alcohol as the focus of the event nor promote excessive drinking.
- Each community (e.g., Undergraduate, Fuqua, Law) may establish additional guidelines and policies governing the possession, consumption, and distribution of alcohol that reach beyond these minimal expectations. Violations of policies shall be adjudicated using existing procedures within each segment of the university.

UNDERGRADUATE POLICY

The remainder of this policy, specifically for undergraduates, augments Duke’s university-wide alcohol policy. For individuals as well as groups, whether on campus or off, prohibited behavior includes:

- underage possession/consumption;
- unsafe/irresponsible behavior;
- violation of community expectations;
- general provisions violation; and,
- violation(s) of expectations for group-sponsored social functions.

Sanctions for violations of any of these prohibited behaviors are outlined in this Guide (see “Sanctions” on page 59). Parents of students under the age of 21 may be notified of alcohol-related disciplinary violations when a student’s health or safety has been/is at risk.

See “Appendix F – Information and Resources Concerning Substance Use” on page 70 for health effects associated with alcohol and other drug use, helpful resources for assistance, and legal ramifications of illicit possession, use, or distribution.

UNDERAGE POSSESSION/CONSUMPTION

Students under 21 years of age are not permitted to purchase, possess, or consume alcoholic beverages. Being under the influence of any amount of alcohol while underage is considered a violation of this provision. Groups are considered in violation of this provision if they facilitate the acquisition of alcohol by anyone under the age of 21.

UNSAFE/IRRESPONSIBLE BEHAVIOR

Unsafe or irresponsible behavior is defined as actions that are harmful or potentially harmful to one’s self or others involving the use of alcohol. Such behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- consuming an excessive quantity in a short amount of time, including, but not limited to, shotgunning, shots, and chugging;
- participating in or facilitating drinking games or progressive parties;
- consuming through beer bongs;
- use or attempted use of fraudulent identification or another’s identification to obtain alcohol; and
- making alcohol available to underage drinkers.
COMMUNITY EXPECTATIONS VIOLATION
It shall be a violation of the alcohol policy to engage in an action while under the influence of alcohol that is disruptive to the community. Such behavior includes, but is not limited to:
- driving;
- exhibiting disorderly conduct, damaging property, and/or fighting;
- littering;
- running away or hiding from university or public officials, including law enforcement;
- vomiting and/or urinating in public; and
- cursing and/or shouting at others.

GENERAL PROVISIONS VIOLATION
Duke University has established the following general provisions regarding alcohol on campus:
- No kegs or other common-source containers are permitted on campus in private rooms, student apartments, commons rooms, or other public space. (University-approved bartenders, who will be responsible for carding, may distribute alcohol from kegs in public space at events.) Common-source containers, include, but are not limited to, trashcans, recycling bins, kiddie pools, cases of beer, and coolers.
- Only university-approved bartenders are permitted to distribute alcohol on campus, including alcohol from common-source containers.
- Alcohol may not be brought in glass containers to on-campus Bring Your Own Beverage ("BYOB") events.
- All student events at which alcohol will be present, whether there is a university-approved bartender or the party is BYOB, are required to have trained party monitors. (Register for trainings at bit.ly/partymonitorsduke.)
- Except at events in a licensed facility providing a cash bar, no spirituous liquor or fortified wines may be served to undergraduates.
- All students on university property consuming or possessing alcohol must carry a valid driver's license, state identification card, military identification card, or passport.
- No individual may possess more than six cans at a BYOB event. Each can may not exceed 12 ounces and may not exceed 5% Alcohol By Volume (ABV).
- Containers holding more than 24 ounces are prohibited from BYOB events.
- No alcoholic beverages are permitted in first-year houses (or the surrounding grounds) on East Campus.
- Students may not bring any alcoholic beverages into campus recreation and athletic facilities unless otherwise authorized.
- The use of alcoholic beverages as a prize is prohibited.
- Flyers, banners, signs, and social media that advertise social events where alcohol will be served must not state or imply an invitation to participate in excessive drinking.
- Publicity on East Campus or targeted to first-year students may NOT include a reference to alcohol.

EXPECTATIONS FOR GROUP-SPONSORED SOCIAL FUNCTIONS
Recognized groups may be held accountable for violations of the alcohol policy that occur during a group-sponsored event on campus. To ensure that such violations do not occur, a group will be held accountable if the group failed to take appropriate precautions. Appropriate precautions must include:
- a trained, sober party monitor for every 25 persons expected to attend the event;
- adequate and accessible non-alcoholic beverages and food;
- compliance with all fire safety regulations;
- adequate control of access to event;
- enforcing occupancy limits for the venue, including commons rooms, hallways, and stairwells;
- calling for medical/police assistance as needed; and
- serving of alcohol by university-approved bartenders only.
ANIMALS ON CAMPUS

Any animal brought on campus by students or guests may not be unrestrained. With the exception of service animals, animals are prohibited inside any university facility, unless authorized by the space manager responsible for that facility/space. Any type of animal abuse is prohibited, including but not limited to abandonment of or failure to properly care for an animal. Animals, live or dead, may not be used in pranks or otherwise for amusement or ceremony in connection with any institutional or student group function or activity. For purposes of this policy, the term “animal” includes any wild or domesticated, warm-blooded or cold-blooded animal.

Animals may not be brought to campus for large-scale student events and activities including, but not limited to, Homecoming, Duke Reunions, Last Day of Classes, Springternational, Joe College Day, Old Duke Concert, etc. For more information, contact University Center Activities and Events at 919-684-4741.

*Throughout the rest of this publication, text appearing in blue boxes is guidance and not official university policy.
BRIDGE PAINTING

The purpose of this policy is to ensure an aesthetically pleasing campus, protect university facilities, and allow for students to use the “Free Expression” bridge/tunnel without damaging neighboring property. Individuals and groups may express opinions within this area that are not restricted by content, except by legal standards.

The surface of the “Free Expression” bridge/tunnel (located on Campus Drive under Main Street) may be painted within the span of the ceiling of the tunnel (but not the ceiling itself), as well as on the outer edge of the Pettigrew Bridge facing Campus Drive and, the exterior (inner) face of the concrete Campus Drive tunnel walls. However, painting is not allowed on the sidewalks or roadways inside or outside the tunnel. Supplies are the responsibility of the painter(s) and are not provided by the university. Painter(s) may not impede the flow of traffic. Any ladders used may not exceed six feet.

There is no restriction regarding painting over the sections of the tunnel that other people or organizations have painted—no matter how recently they have been painted. However, animosity is often generated toward groups who paint over sections that are advertising events not yet held or sections painted very recently. Please use courtesy and common sense when selecting an area of the tunnel to paint.

Any person may remove non-conforming material. Policy violations resulting in the need for restoration should be reported to Duke University Police. Reimbursement for any restoration costs (i.e., paint removal, cleaning, removal of residual substances, and so on) will be the responsibility of the violating party.

No painting will be allowed at any other locations on the campus of Duke University, including these areas near the tunnel:

- the Main Street bridge and the railroad trestle (see below);
- the Duke stone walls (see below);

Painting is permitted on the outer edge of the Pettigrew Bridge facing Campus Drive and the exterior (inner) face of the concrete Campus Drive tunnel walls.
the steps and handrails from Campus Drive to Pettigrew Street (see below); any handrails, roadways or sidewalks, even if located inside the tunnel (see below); or fencing along the Main Street bridge.

Students who violate these expectations will be held accountable through the university’s disciplinary processes and may also be subject to criminal charges. Note that defacement of any public property (i.e., property not owned by Duke) is a violation of North Carolina law.

Although there is no restriction on the content painted on the Free Expression tunnel and the Pettigrew Bridge (except by legal standards), painters should consider the broad effect of what is depicted/written on the walls on the overall campus climate.

Consider these questions as you plan to paint:

- Is the content in generally good taste?
- Does the content offend or target a specific person or group of people?
- Is the content something that could be taken out of context and appear harmful?
- Is it something that visitors to Duke can appreciate?
CLASSROOM DISRUPTION

Students who behave in the classroom in such a way that the educational experiences of other students and/or the instructor’s course objectives are disrupted are subject to disciplinary action, including possible exclusion from a course. Such behavior impedes students’ ability to learn or an instructor’s ability to teach. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to: non-approved use of electronic devices (including cellular telephones); cursing or shouting at others in such a way as to be disruptive; or, other violations of an instructor’s expectations for classroom conduct.

COMPUTING AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Duke cherishes freedom of expression, the diversity of values and perspectives inherent in an academic institution, the right to acknowledgment, and the value of privacy for all members of the Duke community. At the same time, Duke may be required by law to access and disclose information from computer and network users’ accounts or may find it necessary to do so in order to protect Duke’s legal interests, uphold contractual obligations, or comply with other applicable Duke policies. Duke may also be required to access information to diagnose and correct technical problems.

ACCEPTABLE USE

In making acceptable use of computing and electronic resources you must:

• Protect your userid and system from unauthorized use. You are responsible for all activities on your userid or that originate from your system.

• Access only information that is your own, that is publicly available, or to which you have been given authorized access.

• Refrain from monopolizing systems, overloading networks with excessive data, degrading services, or wasting computer time, connection time, disk space, printer paper, manuals, or other resources.

• Seek pre-approval from OIT before deploying/using code that potentially impacts server resources or automates processes (e.g., in registering for classes).

In making acceptable use of computing and electronic resources you must not:

• Use another person’s system, files, or data without permission (note that permission from an individual user may not be sufficient–some systems may require additional authority).

• Give your password to another person (including to your parents). Contact the OIT Service Desk if you need assistance with giving other people authority to access your files or e-mail.

• Attempt to circumvent or subvert security measures.

• Engage in any activity that might be purposefully harmful to systems or to any information stored thereon.

• Make unauthorized modifications to university data.

• Make or use illegal copies of copyrighted software or other copyrighted works, store such copies on university systems, or transmit them over university networks.

• Use the university’s systems or networks for commercial purposes; for example, by selling access to your userid or by performing work for profit with university resources in a manner not authorized by the university.

The above list only addresses some of the most common issues that arise with regard to computing. All prohibitions found in applicable law and other university policies also apply to the computer systems.

GROUP E-MAIL

Duke University has established a group e-mail policy that outlines appropriate uses for group e-mail. This e-mail policy applies to all group e-mails sent through Duke’s e-mail systems.

Large-scale e-mail communications, including surveys, announcements, etc., require the implicit or explicit prior approval of that group or unit. Visit the OIT website for full information at oit.duke.edu/about/policies/group-email-policy.

Note that the above computing policies are subject to change. For current policies, visit oit.duke.edu.
DISORDERLY CONDUCT

Disorderly conduct is contrary to the mission of the university and will be addressed through the disciplinary process. Disorderly conduct is defined as:

- any unreasonable or reckless conduct by an individual or group that is inherently or potentially unsafe to other persons or their real or personal property; and/or
- any behavior by an individual or group that disrupts the peace or interferes with the normal operation of the university or university-sponsored activities.

Disorderly conduct includes, but is not limited to: reckless driving; interrupting or interfering with the carrying out of the duties of a university or public official, including law enforcement; vomiting and/or urinating in public; and, indecent exposure.

DRONES

Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS), or “drones,” have emerged as a new technology of interest both for hobbyists, and more importantly for possible research, academic, and commercial uses at Duke. For the full and latest Duke policy on drones, visit drones.duke.edu/policies.

DRUGS AND DRUG PARAPHERNALIA

HEALTH AND SAFETY INTERVENTION

Because health and safety of students are of primary importance, students are encouraged not only to look out for their own health and safety but also for that of their peers. When a person’s health and/or safety is/ are threatened or appear(s) to be in jeopardy, immediate action should be taken to prevent injury/illness/ danger. Dial 911 (or 919-684-2444 if you are on campus) for help. Whatever the particular need/problem, it is important to respond in a responsible and timely manner.

Formal disciplinary action for a violation of the Drugs and Drug Paraphernalia policy will not be taken against students for whom medical assistance is sought, or against those who seek medical assistance for themselves or for others, provided that the student/group has not violated university policies that warrant formal disciplinary action.

A student who receives medical assistance may be required to meet with a substance abuse specialist in DuWell for education, assessment, and possible referral for treatment. The student may also be required to complete an educational assignment. Parents of such students may also be notified. A group that facilitates the acquisition of drugs may also be required to notify its advisor, provide an educational program for members, and/or change its processes for hosting events.

In the event that a student fails to meet with the specialist, chooses not to participate in the outlined expectations, or exhibits a pattern of abusive behavior with alcohol and/or other substances, the student may be subject to formal disciplinary action.

A panel of the Undergraduate Conduct Board will be informed of a student who has received “amnesty” under this provision of the Drugs and Drug Paraphernalia Policy should the student be subsequently found responsible for a violation of policy related to substance use for purposes of effective sanctioning.

Duke University prohibits members of its community, both individuals and groups, from manufacturing, selling, delivering, possessing, using, or being under the influence of a controlled substance without legal authorization. A controlled substance includes any drug, substance, or immediate precursor covered under the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, including but not limited to opiates, barbiturates, amphetamines, marijuana, and hallucinogens.
Did you know that a finding of responsibility for a student’s first-time possession or use of marijuana may result in a sanction of disciplinary probation? This could prevent a student from studying abroad or participating in programs such as DukeEngage.

Duke University prohibits members of its community from breathing or inhaling any substance for the purpose of causing intoxication except pursuant to the directions of a licensed medical provider authorized by law. Prohibited substances include those specified under the North Carolina Toxic Vapors Act. Manufacturing, selling, delivering, possessing, and/or being under the influence of such inhalants for the intended purpose of causing intoxication is also prohibited.

The possession of drug paraphernalia is also prohibited under North Carolina state law and university policy. Drug paraphernalia includes all equipment, products and material of any kind that are used to facilitate, or intended or designed to facilitate, violations of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act and/or the North Carolina Toxic Vapors Act.

In addition to disciplinary action, the conduct officer, or designee, may require a student to take a leave of absence, and return to campus may be conditional upon proof of completion of a substance abuse treatment program. (See “Appendix F – Information and Resources Concerning Substance Use” on page 70.)

DUKECARD

DukeCards are the property of Duke University. One must carry it at all times while on Duke property and present it upon request to any university official. A mobile DukeCard credential installed on one’s phone is not a suitable substitute for having one’s physical DukeCard. The card is not transferable. Allowing another person to use one’s card or mobile credential, or being in possession of someone else’s card or mobile credential, may result in the confiscation of the card or mobile device, and both individuals may be subject to disciplinary action.

FAILURE TO COMPLY

A student or group may be held accountable for failure to comply with:

- directions, requests, or orders of any university representative or body acting in an official capacity, or impeding with the carrying out of such directives;
- instructions of law enforcement officials acting in an official capacity;
- specified protocols and policies for protected research data; and/or
- sanctions rendered during the disciplinary process (including sanctions issued by a residential staff member).

FALSIFICATION/FRAUD

Honesty and integrity are critical components of the Duke Community Standard. A student or group may be subject to disciplinary action for any of the following actions:

- any intentional misrepresentation of fact (by action or concealment), including furnishing false information, to any university official;
- any intentional misrepresentation of fact (by action or concealment) to obtain or attempt to induce another to surrender a right, benefit or property; and/or
- forgery, alteration, or misuse of any official document, record, key, access code, or instrument of identification, or possession of such forgery.
FIRE SAFETY

Open Flames. It is a violation of university policy to light any material on fire on campus. Candles, other open flame devices, and incense are strictly forbidden for use inside Duke University facilities. Battery or electrically powered candles will be used except when a religious activity specifically requires the use of a live flame. Students and groups will be held financially accountable for any damage they cause as a result of violating this policy and will be referred to the disciplinary process. Additionally, students may be subject to revocation of their Housing License for any violation of this policy.

Those individuals wishing to utilize live flame candles in observance of a religious holiday should contact Religious Life at Duke or Jewish Life at Duke for guidance. OESO Fire & Life Safety (OESO F&LS) will not accept requests directly from students. OESO F&LS will provide information concerning fire prevention directly to Religious Life at Duke and Jewish Life at Duke. Use of candles will not be permitted inside any residential facilities. Requests for use of live flame candles in outdoor locations need to follow the same process and are subject to approval on a case by case basis. All personnel should know the location of building fire equipment to include fire extinguishers and manual fire alarm pull stations.

Open Fires on Campus. Open fires, including bonfires, are not permitted on Duke University property except as approved by the OESO Fire & Life Safety Division and the Durham Fire Marshal. Students who either provide or contribute materials to burn or who ignite or attempt to ignite flammable materials will be considered in violation of this policy. Students also should realize that such actions violate state law and may result in a citation for unlawful burning.

Electrical Wiring/Appliances. Tampering with electrical wiring, including but not limited to the installation of direct-wired ceiling fans and unauthorized entry into electrical panel boxes, is prohibited. Residents are responsible for any damages caused by electrical appliances that are not owned by Duke University.

All electrical appliances shall be UL approved and maintained in good condition. Numerous electrical devices plugged into one outlet through an outlet cube or extension cord may cause a circuit overload or may cause overheating of the electrical appliances, resulting in a fire. Therefore, the use of outlet cubes or extension cords is prohibited. Use a power strip with a built-in circuit breaker.

Heat producing appliances (e.g., coffee pots, steam irons, hair curling irons, etc.) should never be plugged into multi-plug adaptors, extension cords, or power strips and should never be left unattended.

Fire Alarms and Evacuation. In the event of a fire, the most important thing is for you to evacuate the building safely. Make sure you familiarize yourself with the evacuation routes in your area. Fire emergency response is defined by the acronym R.A.C.E. If you discover a fire or see a flame or smoke, follow the RACE procedures: Remove all persons in immediate danger to safety, Activate manual pull station and call or have someone call 911. Close doors and windows to prevent the spread of smoke and fire. Extinguish the fire (if you are able) and/or Evacuate.

Never assume that a fire alarm is a drill or false alarm. Remain calm and evacuate the facility. Evacuation is mandatory for all individuals when the fire alarm is sounding. Anyone who fails to evacuate may face disciplinary action. Remember to follow the instructions of the emergency responders. Do not re-enter the facility until authorized. If you have any information regarding the alarm, present that information immediately to the responding emergency personnel.

Persons evacuating the building should report to their assigned Emergency Assembly Point(s), as directed by their supervisor or Resident Assistant/Coordinator.

Upon Discovery of a Fire. Report all fires and smoke to the Duke University Police Department by dialing 911 from any campus phone. If dialing from a personal cell phone or an off-campus telephone within Durham, the call will immediately reach the Durham Emergency Communications Center. The caller should first state they are on Duke Campus and then state the building name. In either case, each agency has instant communication with the other and calls can be immediately transferred from one to the other. Fires that have been extinguished should also be reported to Duke Police so that an investigation may be conducted. All residential building fires should also be subsequently reported to Housing and Residence Life (HRL): East, 919-684-5320, Swift Quad, 919-684-5813, and West, 919-684-5486. If you feel comfortable doing so, use a fire extinguisher to control or extinguish the fire while emergency personnel are en route to your location. Use the P.A.S.S. procedure: Pull the pin; Aim the nozzle at the base of the fire; Squeeze the handle; Sweep from side to side.

Do not use elevators. If hallways and/or exit stairwells are not accessible because of heavy smoke, return to your room and close the door. Open the window, hang a sheet or other light colored object out of the window to attract the attention of emergency personnel, and then close the window. If there is a phone in the room, call 911 (see above for specific instructions) and report that you are trapped. Remain calm and give your room number and building location. Stuff towels, sheets, or similar materials under all doors leading into corridors. Stay close to the floor if smoke enters the room.
If you have exited the facility, stand clear of the building and report to your designated Emergency Assembly Point. Emergency apparatus may be maneuvering around the building. Follow the directions of fire and police personnel and never re-enter the building until they give permission to do so.

Fire Drill Training. OESO Fire & Life Safety Division staff conducts four student housing fire drills per year (two each semester). They go on site to supervise all aspects of the drills, including observation, evaluation, and documentation. The standard procedure entails activating the fire alarm system, usually by engaging a student volunteer to use a manual pull station.

All students, faculty, staff, and visitors must exit the building and meet at the Emergency Assembly Point (EAP). Occupants are then briefed on their performance of evacuating the building, ways in which to improve said evacuation, how to activate a pull station, what to do in the event of a real fire, and how to use a fire extinguisher.

Damaging or Tampering with Fire Safety Equipment. Relocating, removing, tampering with, or destroying smoke detectors or fire safety equipment is strictly prohibited. Damage and/or theft of fire equipment are punishable under North Carolina state law. Intentional false alarms, damage, theft, and misuse of fire detection, alarm, and extinguishing equipment are punishable under the criminal law provision of the North Carolina Statute 14-286 and may result in the loss of housing privileges and/or disciplinary action. In addition, residents will be charged for fire damage resulting from neglect or intentional actions. If a resident or staff member notices any damaged, missing, or malfunctioning equipment, they should immediately report the deficiency to the housing office or OESO Fire & Life Safety Division.

Fireworks/Pyrotechnics. Students or performers may not possess/use fireworks or pyrotechnics of any kind on campus. Anyone who sees a person with these materials should immediately report it to Duke Police.

Flammable/Combustible Materials. Flammable/combustible materials including but not limited to gasoline, lighter fluid, and propane tanks are not permitted in residential areas.

Grills. North Carolina state law prohibits the use of portable charcoal, gas, or electric grills within 10 feet of all residence halls/apartments. Cooking on balconies is prohibited. Storage of grills not in use, which are cool, is permitted on the exterior of the structure or in approved locations. Failure to abide by this ordinance may result in a fine as determined by the Durham Fire Marshal in addition to disciplinary action.

Halogen Lamps. OESO Fire & Life Safety Division and Housing and Residence Life (HRL) prohibit halogen lights in residential areas. The very high temperatures reached by their bulbs constitute a fire hazard and a potential source of burns. In addition, the geometry of the floor model lamp tends to make them very unstable and easily tipped over.

Obstruction of Hallways, Stairwells, Sidewalks, and Lawns. North Carolina fire safety codes prohibit the obstruction of hallways and stairwells. The Durham Fire Marshal mandates the immediate removal of all items obstructing hallways and stairwells. HRL, Facilities Management, Fire & Life Safety, or Duke Police will remove without warning or reimbursement furniture, bicycles, lumber, and all other items found obstructing hallways or stairwells. University furniture will be removed from hallways and stairwells and residents may be charged for missing furniture. Sidewalks, stairways, and entryways must not be used for purposes other than ingress or egress. Bicycles may not be left in these areas or other locations where they may cause harm to persons or grounds keeping equipment.

Motorcycles must be parked in parking lots. Delivery trucks, automobiles, motorcycles, scooters, and mini-bikes are not permitted on lawns and walkways, patios, or stairwells. These vehicles must be parked in legal parking spaces.

GAMBLING

It is against North Carolina state law and Duke University policy to gamble, with the exception of the state lottery. A person/organization is gambling if the person/organization operates, plays, or bets at any game of chance at which any money, property, or other thing of value is bet. Raffles of any kind, including those sponsored by student groups, are also prohibited. A “raffle” is defined as "a game in which the prize is won by random drawing of the name or number of one or more persons purchasing chances" (N.C.G.S. §14-309.15). Poker nights and casino games are permitted only if no admission is charged, no buy-in is required, and no real money is wagered.

GUESTS

Students and groups are responsible for notifying their guests of university rules and regulations and may be held accountable for the conduct of their guests. Guests can be Duke University students or non-students. Guests on campus who do not abide by university policies are subject to being trespassed.

Students are responsible for the behavior of visitors to their room/apartment and may be found responsible for behavior that occurs there whether or not the occupant(s) is/are present.
HARASSMENT

Harassment of any individual for any reason is not acceptable at Duke University. It is defined as unwelcome verbal, visual, physical, electronic, or other conduct that is so severe, persistent, and/or pervasive that it alters the conditions of education, employment, or participation in a program or activity, thereby creating an environment that a reasonable person in similar circumstances and with similar identities would find hostile, intimidating, or abusive. Harassment is distinguished from behavior that, even though unpleasant or disconcerting, is appropriate to the carrying out of certain instructional, advisory, or supervisory responsibilities.

Allegations of harassment in which an accused individual is an undergraduate student will be investigated and resolved by trained individuals using the above definition and via the procedures outlined in “Resolution of Student Conflict and Alleged Violations of University Policy” (page 51) of this Guide. A finding of responsibility for a violation of the Harassment Policy will be made based on a preponderance of the evidence standard.

The Office for Institutional Equity responds to allegations of harassment in which an accused individual is not an undergraduate student, as well as allegations of discrimination in which an accused individual is any member of the Duke community; see bit.ly/dukeharassmentpolicy for the university’s full Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Misconduct.

(See the “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” on page 37 for the definition of and procedures related to sex/gender-based harassment by an undergraduate or graduate student.)

TIME FRAMES

The Office of Student Conduct seeks to resolve reports under this policy within 60 business days from receipt of a report, excluding days classes are not in session (see Appeals on page 61 for additional information on time frames). An investigation typically takes up to 45 business days or more to complete. Generally, within 15 business days after completion of an investigation, an administrative or panel hearing, if applicable, is scheduled. During this time, staff in the Office of Student Conduct may seek clarifying information and/or meet with a complainant, respondent, investigator, or others.

HAZING

Hazing is a serious infraction of university regulations. The potential for hazing typically arises as part of a student’s introduction to or initiation in an organization (fraternity, sorority, athletic team, or other group) in which there is often a perceived or real power differential between members of the organization and those newly joining it.

Hazing defined. Hazing is defined as any action taken or situation created, whether on or off university premises, that is harmful or potentially harmful to an individual’s physical, emotional, or psychological well-being, regardless of an individual’s willingness to participate or its bearing on the individual’s membership status. Such activities and situations include, but are not limited to:

LEVEL I VIOLATIONS

- marching in line
- road trips
- wearing apparel which is conspicuous and not normally in good taste, and/or inappropriate for the time of year
- calisthenics
- line-ups
- pledge/signature books
- periods of silence
- standing for a length of time
- personal servitude
- activities that would not normally construe hazing but because of time, place, or manner make them inappropriate
WHAT IS HAZING? WHAT IS NOT HAZING?

ROAD TRIPS

Zeta Gamma fraternity plans a group outing to enhance the sense of brotherhood among its associates and new members during the pledging period. The new member educator uses the group listserv to announce a weekend camping trip three weeks in advance. In the email, all members are notified that the group will spend two nights sleeping in tents at Jordan Lake, and the email includes details such as departure/return times and a list of planned activities. The email asks the members to respond with their availability and invites them to pitch in $10 for food and non-alcoholic beverages. The email makes explicit that no alcohol will be served on this trip, and that all members are encouraged to attend but that attendance is not required.

This is NOT a violation of the Hazing Policy. All members of the Zeta Gamma fraternity are invited to participate in the camping trip and contribute an equal amount of money. The trip includes a specific agenda and sets detailed expectations for a member’s time commitment.

The recruitment chair of the Lambda Pi Psi fraternity planned a surprise getaway for its new members. A few associates were asked to help plan the event, and the recruitment chair secured the DukeCard of a first-year student in order to enter the East Campus residence halls. At 3 o’clock on a Saturday morning, current members stormed into the new members’ rooms and yelled at them, stating they had 15 minutes to get dressed and meet at the East Campus Bus Stop, but that this was an optional activity. They were not given any further instructions. New members put their clothes on and ran to the bus stop, where cars were waiting for them. After they got into the cars, the new members were blindfolded and were driven approximately 20 minutes to an undisclosed location. They were made to get out of the car and hand in their cell phones and wallets to an associate. The new member educator then told the new members that they needed to make their way back to campus by 10 o’clock in the morning for mandatory physical training.

This IS a violation of the Hazing Policy. Regardless of the new members’ willingness to participate, the activity was harmful to their physical and emotional well-being. The new members engaged in this activity under the watch of associates. In addition to Hazing, the group may be charged with potential policy violations of Noise, Disorderly Conduct, and Property/Facilities/Services - Unauthorized Access. Lambda Pi Psi’s president, new member educator, and current members who participated in the activity by driving or waking up the new members may also be held individually accountable for policy violations.

SCAVENGER HUNTS

The business fraternity Epsilon Delta Omega has developed a scavenger hunt to help create a sense of belonging and brotherhood. Teams consisting of both new and associate members are given a list of tasks to be completed on the Duke campus that engage them in learning more about the university and each other. Such tasks include visiting the Duke Chapel crypt and getting the names of the former Duke presidents who are buried there, finding out who the “Griffith” is in the name “Griffith Board Room” and what his role was at Duke, and meeting one of the directors of academic engagement at the Academic Advising Center. A specific time limit is set for the scavenger hunt during the day, and the members of the team who have completed the most tasks each win a gift certificate to The Parlour in Durham.

This is NOT a violation of the Hazing Policy. There is no penalty for not completing tasks. Members are not required to complete ridiculous or dangerous tasks. Current members are asked to participate equally in the activity.

A highly regarded a cappella group has auditioned a large number of students and is ready to accept a few new members, but wants to make sure they are committed to the long practice hours and tight-knit friendship. They distribute a list of required tasks the new members must complete between the hours of 10 PM and 8 AM the following morning. The new members are split into teams based on which students have access to cars, and the returning members gather at a member’s off-campus house to watch a basketball game. The task sheet, which includes activities like stealing a parking gate arm, taking a selfie while riding the mechanical bull at a local bar, and bringing a pizza to the house, also notes that for each task the team does not complete, a team member will have to run a circuit around the East Campus loop.

This IS a violation of the Hazing Policy. The new members are subjected to absurd requirements that offer no substantial, meaningful engagement with either the group members or the university. New members are put under additional pressure with physical penalties, and the current members are not participating equally in the event. Further, the new members are required to violate university policy by taking a parking gate arm, which may result in additional disciplinary charges for the group.
COSTUMES/APPAREL

The Marketing Club is considering creative ways to market its annual Library Party to the Duke community. One member suggests that during the week before the party, members dress up during the day in costumes that lend themselves to this year’s theme, “Heroes and Villains.” The group asks for volunteers from the planning committee to participate, and gives them flyers to pass out on the Bryan Center Plaza and around campus to passersby. Throughout the week before the party, Superman, Darth Vader, Black Widow, and Buffy the Vampire Slayer are spotted on campus talking to people about the party.

This is NOT a violation of the Hazing Policy. Students are invited to volunteer to dress up to promote the party, and wearing a costume is not a condition of membership or joining the group.

The women’s gymnastics team is trying to gather interest from the Duke community in attending its only home meet of the season. Each year, the freshman members of the team are required to don silly costumes such as a cow with udders, a monkey suit, and a cowgirl. The older members of the team instruct the freshmen to ride the East-West campus bus for hour-long shifts wearing their costumes and handing out flyers for the meet.

This IS a violation of the Hazing Policy. First-year team members are singled out and are made to promote the meet without the older members of the team. Even if upperclassmen had to do the same activity when they were freshmen (which still is considered a violation of the Hazing Policy), new members may not be required to do so.

Making an activity optional does not change the fact that it may be construed as hazing. The culture of joining new groups creates a tacit understanding that those who want to join will participate in any way possible to gain acceptance. Consent to being a participant in or perpetrator of hazing is not justification for violating this policy.

OTHER EXAMPLES OF HAZING:

• Physical training, calisthenics, exercise (Level I): New members may neither be asked nor required to participate in any physical activity except in the context of club sports, intramurals, etc.
• Being required to have on one’s person specific objects, food, or beverages (Level I)
• Texting or calling new members at various times of day and night in order to run errands (Level I)
• Requiring new members to clean up following group parties (unless all members of the group are asked to participate) (Level I)
• Mandatory study hours at unusual times or that interrupt a student’s academic schedule (Level I)
• “Kidnapping” new members at any time of the day (Level I or II)
• Torturing animals (Level II or III)
• Requiring new members to serve as designated drivers (Level I or II)

COMMON ACTIVITIES THAT ARE NOT CONSTRUED AS HAZING:

• Requesting that new members wear more formal attire, such as blazers and ties, on a certain day of the week (apparel that is not conspicuous or inappropriate)
• Requesting that new members wear a specific color to an event for members of the group (apparel that is not conspicuous or inappropriate)
• Tenting in Krzyzewskiville. Students who sign up to participate in tenting are given explicit instructions and expectations for attendance before getting involved. Tent checks and sleeping in cold weather are not construed as hazing; those who choose to tent are not seeking membership or initiation into an organization

Both individuals and groups may be held accountable under the Hazing Policy. The action of even one member of a group may result in both individual and group responsibility. The following questions can help individuals/groups assess the appropriateness of an activity:

• Does the activity promote and conform to the ideals, values, and mission of both the university and organization?
• Is it an activity that all members (current and initiates) engage in together?
• Would the group’s advisor, the national headquarters of a fraternity/sorority, and/or other university officials approve of the activity?
LEVEL II VIOLATIONS

- sleep deprivation or interruption of consecutive sleep hours
- expected or forced consumption of food, drink (including alcohol), or other substance
- acts of humiliation or degradation (including streaking or wearing degrading or humiliating apparel)
- restrictions on eating or bathing
- acts that disrupt academic instruction or learning of others
- interruption or interference of academic commitments

LEVEL III VIOLATIONS

- branding
- paddling in any form
- compromising (sexual) situations

Any individual or group found responsible for hazing will be subject to sanctions outlined in the disciplinary process, including, but not limited to: disciplinary probation, social suspension, suspension of charter, restrictions on member recruitment and/or group activity, removal of the individual from the group, loss of housing privileges, suspension, and/or expulsion. Sanctioning will increase with the level of violation and any previous hazing violations. (Levels of violation listed above are guidelines only and may change given particular circumstances of a violation.) Students should also be aware that hazing is a misdemeanor under North Carolina state law.

Acts or potential acts of hazing may be reported to the Office of Student Conduct (919-684-6938) or Duke Police (911 or 919-684-2444). In addition, concerns may be reported confidentially via voicemail to the university’s Hazing Hotline at 919-684-5766. Maintaining the confidentiality of the source is possible, but may limit the extent of action that can be taken.

NOISE

Students and groups are expected to respect the rights of others at all times. During specified hours, higher noise levels are permitted but must remain at a level considerate of those students who wish to study or sleep:

WEST CAMPUS AND SWIFT QUAD (UPPERCLASS CAMPUS):

Quiet hours are in effect at all times other than as noted below, when reasonable levels of noise will be permitted:
- 5:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. Monday-Thursday
- 5:00 p.m.-2:00 a.m. Friday
- 1:00 p.m.-2:00 a.m. Saturday
- 1:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m. Sunday

Additionally, amplified sound is permitted on the Plaza between noon and 1 p.m. on weekdays.
EAST CAMPUS:

Quiet hours are in effect at all times other than as noted below, when reasonable levels of noise will be permitted:

- 5:00 p.m.-midnight, Friday
- Noon-midnight, Saturday
- Noon-6:00 p.m. Sunday

ALL CAMPUSES:

From reading day(s) through the end of finals, quiet hours are in effect 24 hours a day.

Students who are disturbed by noise should attempt to resolve the situation by contacting the other party(ies) involved; or, if needed, seek the assistance of living group officers, resident assistants, graduate residents, or residence coordinators. If necessary, persistent complaints may be registered by calling Duke Police at 919-684-2444. Students are responsible for the actions of their guests; cohesive units, as a whole, may be held responsible for violations of this policy by their individual members or their guests. Initial complaints will be referred to appropriate residential staff. Depending on the nature and severity of the violation, as well as the existence of prior violations, the complaint may be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct for disciplinary action.

PHYSICAL ABUSE, FIGHTING, AND ENDANGERMENT

Any physical abuse, fighting, and/or endangerment to an individual or group is specifically prohibited. This behavior includes, but is not limited to:

- physical violence (initiating or responding to) or attempted physical violence against a person or group. This includes fighting.
- threat of physical violence against a person or group.
- any action that endangers the health, safety, or welfare of a person or group.

PICKETS, PROTESTS, AND DEMONSTRATIONS

Statement of Policy. Duke University respects the right of all members of the academic community to explore and to discuss questions which interest them, to express opinions publicly and privately, and to join together to demonstrate their concern by orderly means. It is the policy of the university to protect the right of voluntary assembly, to make its facilities available for peaceful assembly, to welcome guest speakers, to protect the exercise of these rights from disruption or interference.

The university also respects the right of each member of the academic community to be free from coercion and harassment. It recognizes that academic freedom is no less dependent on ordered liberty than any other freedom, and it understands that the harassment of others is especially reprehensible in a community of scholars. The substitution of noise for speech and force for reason is a rejection and not an application of academic freedom. A determination to discourage conduct which is disruptive and disorderly does not threaten academic freedom; it is rather, a necessary condition of its very existence. Therefore, Duke University will not allow disruptive or disorderly conduct on its premises to interrupt its proper operation. Persons engaging in disruptive action or disorderly conduct shall be subject to disciplinary action, including expulsion or separation, and also charges of violations of law.

Students planning a picket, protest, or demonstration should contact University Center Activities and Events (919-684-4741) for guidance and further information.

Rule. Disruptive picketing, protesting, or demonstrating on Duke University property or at any place in use for an authorized university purpose is prohibited.

While Duke University recognizes the right to voluntary assembly, members of the university community must recognize that the Medical Center provides care for individuals needing uninterrupted medical services in tranquil surroundings. Accordingly, all pickets, demonstrations, mass assemblies, and protests shall be confined to campus areas and are strictly prohibited in or around any Medical Center building.
Hearing and Appeal. Cases arising out of violations of the Pickets and Protests Regulations will be heard by the University Judicial Board, in accordance with the procedures outlined herein. The University Judicial Board shall have jurisdiction over members of the student body, members of the faculty, and administrative personnel of the university not subject to the personnel policy handbook. Hearings will be conducted with regard for academic due process. The decision of the University Judicial Board shall be final if the accused is exonerated or if there is no appeal. In other cases, students may appeal to the president, or, in the president’s absence, the provost, in which case such appeal shall be solely on the record of the proceedings before the Hearing Committee of the University Judicial Board. Argument on appeal shall be on written submission, but the president may, in addition, require oral argument.

A Hearing Committee will consist of two faculty members, one dean, and two students. These students will be selected from members of the judicial boards or governments in the undergraduate, graduate, or professional colleges or schools. The chair of the Hearing Committee will be designated by its members. The Hearing Committee will conduct its proceedings in accordance with academic due process.

Amendments. These regulations on pickets, protests, and demonstrations may be changed or amended by the university at any time but any such change or amendment shall be effective only after publication or other notice. These regulations supersede any regulations heretofore issued on the subject.

PROPERTY/FACILITIES/SERVICES

Students and groups are expected to respect the property of others (including that of the university) and may be subject to disciplinary action for the following:

- theft and/or wrongful appropriation of the property and/or services of another;
- damage, destruction, or defacement of the property of another, including littering or chalking of university property;
- unauthorized possession and/or use of the property of another, including knowingly being in possession of stolen goods (this includes unauthorized use of vehicles, equipment, services, the Duke University name and logo);
- unauthorized access, entry, and/or use of university or non-university facilities or property, including but not limited to buildings, classrooms, residential rooms, athletic areas, parking areas, roofs, ledges, and tunnels; and/or
- violation of any policy or guidelines pertaining to specific usage of a university facility.

[Worded adopted from Eastern Michigan Student Conduct Code.]

RETAILIATION

Retaliation by individual students, groups of students, or student organizations is prohibited. Retaliation is an adverse action or threat of adverse action taken against an individual for reporting behavior that may be prohibited by law or policy or participating in an investigation or resolution process related to an allegation of misconduct. Retaliation must be sufficiently severe or pervasive to create a work or academic environment that a reasonable person would consider intimidating, hostile, or abusive and that adversely affects the targeted individual’s/group’s educational, work, or living environment.

SCOOTERS

Electric scooters are motor vehicles and drivers utilizing them must operate them in a safe manner. For the full and latest Duke policy on scooters, visit parking.duke.edu/scooters.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

See “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” on page 37.
SMOKING

Duke University seeks to preserve a living and working environment supportive of behaviors that contribute to the physical health and well-being of all community members. Smoking any substance is not permitted in any university building, including residence halls and apartments. Examples of prohibited smoking devices include, but are not limited to, cigarettes, e-cigarettes, and vaporizers.

Smoking is neither permitted within 10 feet of residential buildings, academic buildings, and dining facilities, nor anywhere on the campus of the Medical Center. Smoking is prohibited in specifically designated outdoor areas as determined by the manager of those spaces (e.g., the Plaza).

Note: Effective beginning July 1, 2020, Duke University will become smoke-free on all property and grounds owned and leased by Duke.

SOLICITATION

Recognized student organizations may use the Plaza for the purpose of sales, distribution, or promotion of events (also known as “tabling”). Tabling is administered by University Center Activities and Events (UCAE). Contact UCAE at 919-684-4741, 036 Bryan Center, or visit studentaffairs.duke.edu/ucae for more information and detailed guidelines.

Solicitation is prohibited within a 200-foot radius of the West and East Campus bus stops.

Commercial or outside solicitors (including student employees of outside vendors) are prohibited without permission of the appropriate space manager.

STALKING

Stalking is a course of conduct (including cyberstalking) directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for her, his, or others’ safety, or to offer substantial emotional distress. Sex/gender-based stalking falls under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy (see page 41).

UNAUTHORIZED SURVEILLANCE/PHOTOGRAPHY

Capturing or recording audio, video, or photographic images of an individual in a location or under circumstances in which that person has a reasonable expectation of privacy, including, but not limited to, shower/locker rooms, residence hall rooms, and restrooms, is prohibited. Also prohibited is the storing, sharing, and/or other distribution of such unauthorized surveillance/photography (no matter whether directly or indirectly obtained) by any means, electronic or non-electronic.

[Words adopted from Rice University.]

WEAPONS/FIREARMS/EXPLOSIVES

Although North Carolina law permits weapons on public university campuses under certain parameters, Duke University policy has not changed and continues to prohibit weapons on campus.

It is against university policy to possess and/or use a gun, rifle, pistol, or other firearm of any kind, or any powerful explosive on university property. Additionally, other than when permitted by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) for legitimate educational purposes, students are not permitted to possess and/or use on campus any weapon, including but not limited to pepper spray, mace, BB gun, stun gun, paintball gun, potato gun, realistic-looking toy gun, air rifle, air pistol, sword, bowie knife, dagger, slingshot, switchblade knife, blackjack, and metallic knuckles.
OTHER VIOLATIONS

Other violations for which students or groups may be subject to disciplinary action include, but are not limited to:

- violating any other published or posted university regulation not specifically mentioned in this section, including the Housing License, Housing and Residence Life regulations, student activities regulations, guidelines for organizations, parking regulations, etc.;
- acting as an accomplice through action or negligence to the commission of any prohibited act;
- attempting or intending to commit any violation of laws and/or university policies; and
- violating local ordinances or state or federal laws (as determined through the university's disciplinary process), including those related to noise, housing occupancy, and/or the use or distribution of alcohol.

Alumni or current students who are applying to law school, medical school or other graduate programs, or, who want to work for the government, will likely be asked to report their disciplinary history. If you have a form for us to complete as part of the application (often called a “Dean’s Certification” form), send it to us at:

Office of Student Conduct
Box 90893
Durham, NC 27708-0893
conduct@duke.edu
fax: 919-681-7390

Please allow 5-7 business days for your request to be processed. Because of the volume of requests received, we cannot guarantee a response earlier than five business days, though we do our best to process requests sooner.

It is critically important that students/alumni be honest in sharing information about their disciplinary history, as universities/the government do follow up with us. Perhaps the worst thing you can do is minimize or even lie about an incident in which you were involved. Often, a student’s forthrightness about an incident, and an explanation of what you have learned from the incident, can be a plus factor for a student.
STUDENT SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY: DUKE’S COMMITMENT TO TITLE IX
I. INTRODUCTION

Duke University is committed to encouraging and sustaining a learning and living community that is free from harassment, violence, and prohibited discrimination. In that regard and consistent with federal law (e.g., Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the Violence Against Women Act), Duke has developed this comprehensive Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, applicable to all students (undergraduate, graduate, and professional, or any student enrolled in any Duke program). Further, Duke conducts extensive education and awareness programs with the goal of preventing and discouraging sexual/gender violence and other forms of sexual misconduct.

As discussed more fully below, this Student Sexual Misconduct Policy prohibits all forms of sex/gender-based harassment, sexual/gender violence, sexual exploitation, relationship violence (domestic violence and dating violence), and stalking. Collectively, these terms are referred to in this policy as “Sexual Misconduct.” They are defined below under “Prohibited Conduct.” (Note that non-sex/gender-based harassment is also a violation of university policy, as described under the university’s Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Misconduct, available at [bit.ly/dukeharassmentpolicy].)

The Student Sexual Misconduct Policy serves three principal purposes. First, it establishes conduct standards—namely, prohibited sexual misconduct—for all Duke students. Note that a violation of this policy may also constitute a crime, which can be independently reported to Duke Police, Durham Police, or other appropriate law enforcement agency.

Second, the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy outlines reporting, investigation, and report resolution procedures in cases where it is alleged that a Duke student has engaged in sexual misconduct. This policy refers to the individual who is the alleged victim of the behavior(s) in question as the “complainant” and the student alleged to have committed the violation of the policy as the “respondent.” Both the complainant and the respondent will be treated fairly and with respect throughout the process. A respondent is entitled to a presumption that there is not a violation of this policy throughout the disciplinary process unless and until they are found responsible for a violation of this policy.

In the paragraphs that follow, the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy describes to whom violations of this policy should be reported; avenues for confidential reporting; immediate/interim/long-term measures available to the complainant and the respondent; how the university will investigate and resolve alleged violations; possible sanctions; and, the appeal process.

The Office of Student Conduct is primarily responsible for implementing these procedures; the Office for Institutional Equity assists by investigating reports that the Office of Student Conduct refers to it. Anyone with concerns about a possible violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy by a student is encouraged to contact the Office of Student Conduct at 919-684-6938, conduct@duke.edu, or via studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct/report-incident.

Third, the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy describes resources available on campus and in the community to assist students in dealing with the impact of sexual misconduct, whether it happened recently or in the past. Such services include, for example, the Office of Gender Violence Prevention and Intervention (GVPI) in the Women’s Center, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), DukeReach, Duke Police (for possible criminal conduct), and immediate/interim/long-term actions arranged or issued by the Office of Student Conduct, the Office for Institutional Equity, GVPI, and/or the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee). In addition, resources are available to the respondent during and, in some cases, after the complaint process.

Jayne Grandes (919-660-5766, jayne.grandes@duke.edu), Assistant Vice President and Director of Title IX Compliance (Title IX Coordinator), is the individual responsible for the coordination and administration of Duke’s nondiscrimination and harassment policies generally. Ms. Grandes is responsible for overseeing the university’s Title IX compliance, including this policy and its complaint resolution procedures. The Title IX Coordinator may be reached at 919-684-8222, oie-help@duke.edu. The Director of Title IX Compliance receives comments/concerns from students about this policy’s implementation. The Office for Institutional Equity is located in Smith Warehouse, 114 S. Buchanan Blvd., Bay 8, Durham, North Carolina, 27708.

CONFIDENTIALITY

A student may discuss an alleged violation of this policy without the information being reported to the Office of Student Conduct with those who serve in a professional role in which communication is privileged under North Carolina law and to those whom the university has designated as a confidential resource consistent with Title IX. Those persons include:

- Student Health staff
- Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS) staff
- Women’s Center staff
- Clergy who are acting as such in their professional role at Duke
- Ombudsperson
Students should be aware that, with the exception of these confidential resources, all employees who become aware of conduct that might fall under this policy are expected to notify the Office of Student Conduct with the names of the parties involved and the details of the report. Students who serve in an ongoing peer-advising role (such as Resident Assistants) are also expected to file such reports with the Office of Student Conduct.

INFORMATION FOR THE COMPLAINANT

The complainant will be treated with respect before, during, and after the disciplinary process. During an initial meeting, the Office of Student Conduct will inform the complainant of the university’s disciplinary process and possible outcomes. The Office of Student Conduct will communicate substantive and, when warranted, procedural developments regarding an investigation. The alleged conduct may also be criminal in nature, and the complainant has the right to report—or not to report—the conduct to Duke Police, Durham Police, or other appropriate law enforcement agency. A criminal report does not preclude university disciplinary action.

The complainant is strongly encouraged to seek counseling and support available through resources such as Gender Violence Prevention and Intervention (GVPI) in the Women’s Center, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), and Durham Crisis Response Center (DCRC). For more information on these resources, please see “Support Services and Options for the Complainant” on page 47.

Regardless of whether a complainant pursues a criminal complaint and/or the university’s complaint process through this policy, the university may investigate the incident(s) in question and will take appropriate responsive action to ensure that the educational environment is free of harassment and to prevent the recurrence of a hostile environment—and, if appropriate, remedy the effects of the alleged harassment on the complainant. As discussed later in the policy, remedies available to a complainant may include, but are not limited to: reasonable academic accommodations, on-campus housing reassignment, a “no contact” directive between the respondent and the complainant, and disciplinary action against the respondent as determined through the disciplinary process outlined in this policy.

A complainant may request or the university may issue immediate/interim actions and supports such as a “no contact” directive and changes to academic and living situations through the Office of Student Conduct, GVPI in the Women’s Center, and/or the Title IX Coordinator regardless of whether a complainant files a formal report. A complainant will be notified as to what changes are reasonably available and/or are being implemented.

INFORMATION FOR THE RESPONDENT

The respondent will be treated with respect before, during, and after the disciplinary process. During an initial meeting, the Office of Student Conduct will inform the respondent of the university’s disciplinary process and possible outcomes. The Office of Student Conduct will communicate substantive and, when warranted, procedural developments regarding an investigation. Note that alleged behavior may also be criminal in nature, and the respondent may be subject to a criminal investigation by the appropriate law enforcement agency at the same time as an investigation by the university under this policy; the respondent may wish to consult with a criminal lawyer as the Office of Student Conduct does not provide advice as to the criminal process. A respondent is entitled to a presumption that there is not a violation of this policy throughout the disciplinary process unless and until they are found responsible for a violation of this policy.

The respondent has the right to (and is strongly encouraged to seek) counseling and support available through support services such as CAPS, DukeReach, or other university and local resources. For more information on these resources, please see “Support Services and Options for the Respondent” on page 48.

The respondent may request, or the Office of Student Conduct and/or the Title IX Coordinator may change, academic and living situations and will be notified as to what changes are reasonably available and/or are being implemented.

II. SCOPE

This Student Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to any instance in which any Duke student (undergraduate, graduate, professional, or any student enrolled in any Duke program) is alleged to have engaged in sexual misconduct against anyone (e.g., a student, employee, or third party such as a visiting athlete, guest speaker, or contractor), regardless of the complainant’s or respondent’s sex, gender, sexual orientation, or gender identity. The university will respond to any complaint of sexual misconduct, including conduct alleged to have occurred during breaks, leaves of absence, or periods of dismissal, whether on or off campus. The disciplinary process is available as an option from the date of a respondent’s application to Duke until the date of the respondent’s degree conferral.

1 The Office for Institutional Equity (Smith Warehouse, Bay 8, 919-684-8222) receives reports and handles complaints alleging sexual misconduct by employees and all other non-Duke students, under the Duke Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment, and Related Misconduct, available at bit.ly/dukeharassmentpolicy.
III. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

Rule. Duke University prohibits all forms of sex/gender-based harassment, sexual/gender violence, sexual exploitation, relationship violence (domestic violence and dating violence), and stalking.

Sex/Gender-Based Harassment. Sex- or gender-based harassment may take two forms:

One form of harassment is unwelcome verbal or physical conduct based on sex that, because of its severity, persistence, and/or pervasiveness, creates a hostile environment by interfering significantly with an individual’s work or education, or adversely affecting an individual’s living conditions.

The other form of harassment is a student’s use of a position of authority (e.g., as a TA, RA, team captain, or officer in a fraternity or sorority) to engage in unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- submission to such conduct is explicitly or implicitly made a term or condition of an individual’s employment or education; or
- submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for decisions affecting an individual’s education or employment.

The conduct alleged to constitute harassment under this policy must be sufficiently severe, persistent, and/or pervasive to actually interfere with the complainant’s work, education, or living conditions to a significant degree. The severity, persistence, and/or pervasiveness of the alleged conduct will also be evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable person similarly situated to the complainant and in consideration of the context of the behavior.

Harassment must be distinguished from behavior that, even though unpleasant or disconcerting, is appropriate to the carrying out of certain instructional, advisory, or supervisory responsibilities or to legitimate academic and related discussions. Harassment may be verbal, nonverbal, or physical.

Sexual Violence. Sexual violence is a particularly severe form of harassment defined as any physical act of a sexual nature based on sex and perpetrated against an individual without consent or when an individual is unable to freely give consent. See Section IV of this policy (“IV. Consent” on page 41) for more information about consent.

Physical acts of a sexual nature include, but are not limited to, touching or attempted touching of an unwilling person’s breasts, buttocks, inner thighs, groin, or genitalia, either directly or indirectly; and/or sexual penetration (however slight) of another person’s oral, anal, or genital opening with any body part or object.

Sexual Exploitation. Sexual exploitation includes taking sexual advantage of another without consent for one’s benefit or the benefit of another party.

Relationship Violence. Relationship violence is any act of violence or pattern of abusive behavior in an intimate relationship that is used by one partner to gain or maintain power and control over another partner. Relationship violence can be physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that influence another person. Relationship violence includes domestic violence and dating violence (adapted from the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice, justice.gov/ovw/domestic-violence).

Examples of conduct that may constitute sex/gender-based harassment include:

- Continued unwelcome questioning about intimate or personal matters
- Unwelcome touching, or other physical acts of a sexual nature
- Severe, persistent, or pervasive comments or jokes of a sexual nature
- Severe, persistent, or pervasive unwelcome comments or conduct regarding an individual’s sexual orientation or gender identity
- Sending emails that contain extreme or persistent sexual messages, images, or language
- Repeated derogatory comments of a non-sexual nature relating to a particular sex/gender generally and targeted to (a) specific individual(s) of that sex/gender
- Sex/gender-based violence—non-sexual physical assault of an individual because of the individual’s sex or gender

Harassment may be verbal, nonverbal, or physical and the above list is not exhaustive, but intended only to provide general examples of possible prohibited conduct.
• Domestic violence is any act of violence or pattern of abusive behavior committed by a student against the student’s current or former spouse/cohabiting, person similarly situated under domestic or family violence law, or anyone else protected under domestic or family violence law.

• Dating violence is any act of violence or pattern of abusive behavior committed by a student who has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the complainant. Whether there was such relationship will be gauged by its length, type, and frequency of interaction.

Sex/Gender-Based Stalking. Sex/gender-based stalking is a course of conduct (including cyberstalking) directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their own or others' safety, or to suffer substantial emotional distress. Stalking by a student not based on sex or gender is addressed under the Stalking Policy.

RETAILIATION

Retaliation is prohibited under Title IX and this policy and is adjudicated under this policy and procedures. Retaliation is defined as words or acts taken in response to a good-faith reporting of sexual misconduct, or to an individual or group's participation in Duke’s complaint process or the follow up to a Duke complaint. The policy's prohibition against retaliation also protects individuals who oppose through words or actions what they reasonably believe to be sexual misconduct. Retaliation will be a violation of this policy when it is sufficiently serious (e.g., severe, persistent, and/or pervasive) to discourage a reasonable person from further such activity. The protection against retaliation applies to the parties and to all witnesses. All persons who believe they have been subjected to misconduct under this policy are encouraged and have the option to seek support, utilize available resources, and come forward with their concern or complaint.

Fear of retaliation should never be an obstacle to reporting an incident of alleged sex/gender-based harassment, sexual/gender violence, sexual exploitation, relationship violence, or stalking.

IV. CONSENT

Consent is an affirmative decision to engage in mutually acceptable sexual activity freely given by clear actions and/or words.

Consent is an informed decision made freely and actively by all parties. Relying solely upon nonverbal communication can lead to miscommunication. It is important not to make assumptions; if confusion or ambiguity on the issue of consent arises anytime during a sexual interaction, it is essential that each participant stops and clarifies, verbally, willingness to continue.

Students should understand that consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, or lack of active resistance alone. Furthermore, a current or previous dating or sexual relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent, and consent to one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to other forms of sexual activity.

Conduct is “without consent” if no clear consent, verbal and/or nonverbal, is given. An individual is “unable to freely give consent” when the individual is incapacitated (arising, for example, from the use of alcohol or other drugs or when the individual is passed out, asleep, unconscious, or mentally or physically impaired). An individual is also unable to freely give consent when the individual is coerced into sexual activity, such as, for example, through the use of physical force, threat of physical or emotional harm, undue pressure, isolation, or confinement.

The perspective of a reasonable person will be the basis for determining whether a respondent knew, or reasonably should have known, whether a complainant was able to freely give consent and whether consent was given. Additionally, being intoxicated or incapacitated does not diminish one’s responsibility to obtain consent and will not be an excuse for sexual misconduct.
THE IMPACT OF ALCOHOL OR OTHER DRUGS
The use of alcohol or other drugs can impair effective communication about sexual activity and can hinder one’s ability to pick up on danger cues and resist an assault. Alcohol or other drugs can also lower inhibitions and create an atmosphere of confusion over whether consent is freely and effectively given.

V. REPORT RESOLUTION

A flowchart illustrating the report resolution process can be found on page 50.

REPORTING

Students are encouraged to report violations of this policy to the Associate Dean of Students (Title IX Outreach and Response) in the Office of Student Conduct, 200 Crowell Hall, conduct@duke.edu, 919-684-6938, studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct/report-incident.

Once a report is received, an investigation and/or immediate actions may occur, including adjudication through the disciplinary process described below, interim measures (e.g., a “no contact” directive, trespass from campus, interim suspension), reasonable academic or housing modifications, or other measures designed to reasonably minimize the possible recurrence of, and mitigate the effects of, the alleged conduct.

A complainant may request that the Office of Student Conduct not reveal the complainant’s identity in responding to a report. (In some situations, it may be possible to proceed fully with an investigation without disclosing the name of the complainant.) A complainant may also request that the university take limited or no action in response to a report. A request to preserve the confidentiality of any party involved in a report or that no action be taken should be made to the Office of Student Conduct, 919-684-6938, conduct@duke.edu. Staff in the Office of Student Conduct will confer with the Title IX Coordinator about the request and inform the party of the extent to which confidentiality may be maintained. The university will attempt to preserve the confidentiality of the complainant and/or respect a request for limited or no action in response to a report except when, in the university’s judgment, doing so would jeopardize the safety of members of the university community (including the complainant) or where the university is required by law to disclose the information (such as in response to a legal process).

The Office of Student Conduct handles an alleged violation of this policy when the person alleged to have committed a violation is a student. (The Office for Institutional Equity, Smith Warehouse, Bay 8, 919-684-8222, receives reports in which the person alleged to have committed a violation is an employee or third party.) Reports involving an alleged student respondent may be filed at any time before the respondent completes the Duke degree toward which the respondent is progressing at the time of the alleged behavior; prompt reporting can aid an investigation.

IMMEDIATE AND/OR INTERIM MEASURES

The Office of Student Conduct may take immediate action and/or issue interim measures in response to a report, including but not limited to restrictions on contact between the complainant, the respondent, and/or other involved parties; exclusion from areas of campus; and, removal or relocation from residential areas. The Office of Student Conduct adjudicates alleged violations of such through its policies and procedures. The Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs, or designee, may impose an interim suspension.
TIME FRAMES
The Office of Student Conduct seeks to resolve reports under this policy within 60 business days from receipt of a report, excluding days classes are not in session (see Appeals on page 45 for additional information on time frames). An investigation typically takes up to 45 business days or more to complete. Generally, within 15 business days after completion of an investigation, an administrative or panel hearing, if applicable, is scheduled. During this time, staff in the Office of Student Conduct may seek clarifying information and/or meet with a complainant, respondent, investigator, or others.

Circumstances may require the university to extend this overall time frame or any individual time frame discussed in this policy. Examples of reasons why time frames may need to be extended include the complexity of the case, delays due to fall/spring/summer/holiday breaks, inclement weather, and other extenuating circumstances. Exceptions to these time frames will be communicated to the complainant and respondent.

ADVISORS
The complainant and respondent have access to trained Disciplinary Advisors to guide them through the disciplinary process. The complainant and respondent may consult with anyone they wish (including an attorney) during any stage of this process. One advisor of the complainant's/respondent's choice (either the university-appointed Disciplinary Advisor or another advisor of their choice) may accompany the complainant/respondent to any meeting with Office of Student Conduct staff, the investigator, or to a hearing. The advisor’s role in any meeting or hearing is limited to quietly conferring with the complainant or respondent through written correspondence or whisper, and the advisor may not address any other participant or the hearing panel. An advisor may not also be a witness.

RELEVANCE
The Office of Student Conduct, the investigator from the Office for Institutional Equity, or the hearing panel, as appropriate, may exclude and/or redact:

- Information that has no bearing on a fact at issue in the case, is more prejudicial than probative, or is duplicative;
- Prior or subsequent sexual activity, unless the previous or subsequent behavior (as shown by witness testimony and/or past school disciplinary findings) was substantially similar to the conduct at issue or indicates a pattern of behavior and substantial conformity with that pattern;
- Medical or mental health information, treatment and/or diagnosis, unless relevant to a fact at issue in the case;
- Sensitive personally identifying information (e.g., social security numbers, contact information, etc.).

Polygraph examinations and/or their results are neither admissible nor considered in any part of the disciplinary process.

ALTERNATIVE/INFORMAL RESOLUTION
Either party may request, or the Office of Student Conduct, in its discretion, may offer the parties the opportunity to resolve a report using alternative/informal resolution (e.g., restorative principles or mediation). Both parties must agree to the alternative/informal resolution. Should the alternative/informal resolution not be successful, the complainant may initiate/resume the investigation and hearing process described below. More information about alternative/informal resolution is available on the Office of Student Conduct website at studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct.

INVESTIGATION
After it receives a report, the Office of Student Conduct typically meets with a complainant and respondent separately in order to review the disciplinary process and to hear an overview of each party’s account of the incident. Immediate, interim, and/or long-term measures may also be discussed. The Office of Student Conduct may use any information gleaned through this and/or subsequent meetings with the complainant/respondent in the disciplinary process.

If the Office of Student Conduct determines further investigation is warranted, it will refer the report to the Director of Title IX Compliance, who will assign the case to an investigator from the Office for Institutional Equity.

The investigator will interview the complainant and respondent, who will be invited to provide the names of witnesses that they would like the investigator to interview. The investigator will determine which of the witnesses will be interviewed and may also identify others to interview. Parties and/or witnesses may not record their interviews with the investigator. After collecting information, the investigator will submit a written report of relevant information to the Office of Student Conduct. The Office of Student Conduct will review the report for completeness and relevance (as that term is defined above), and direct further investigation as necessary before the report is shared with the complainant and respondent.
The investigator’s report will be shared with the complainant and respondent, who then have five business days to respond in writing to the report with any clarifications, additional witnesses requested to be interviewed (including a brief summary of information each witness would provide), or other relevant information. The complainant and respondent must also submit in writing by that time the names of any witnesses the complainant/respondent wishes to testify (should the matter proceed to a hearing) and a summary of information each witness would provide through their testimony. Character witnesses are not permitted. Names of witnesses provided by the complainant/respondent will be shared with the other party. The investigator will review the feedback to the report, interview additional relevant witnesses (as the investigator deems appropriate), and make changes/additions to the report as determined by the investigator. After the five-business-day deadline, the complainant and respondent may not provide any additional written information for the hearing packet (defined below) or hearing, unless that information was not reasonably available prior to the closing of the five-day window. The hearing panel or the Office of Student Conduct, as appropriate, determines whether to grant exceptions to this five-day deadline.

The Office of Student Conduct will determine what, if any, final changes or additions are made to the investigator’s report based upon its review of the report and feedback as described above from the complainant and respondent.

The Office of Student Conduct will determine whether to proceed to a hearing based on its assessment of whether there is sufficient information to believe that a policy violation may have occurred. The Office of Student Conduct will convey this decision in writing to the complainant and respondent as applicable, who may ask that the Office of Student Conduct reconsider its decision.

VI. HEARING PROCEDURES

When the Office of Student Conduct decides that a case should proceed to a hearing, the case may be resolved either through an administrative resolution or a hearing panel. Under both types of proceedings, the university will use a “preponderance of the evidence” (more likely than not) standard.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING

At the discretion of the Office of Student Conduct, and with the agreement of both the complainant and respondent, a report may be resolved through an administrative hearing. The parties will be notified (typically via email) of the specific violations of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy under consideration in advance of an administrative hearing. A designee of the Office of Student Conduct will review the information gathered during the investigation separately and in private with each party and give each party an opportunity to respond. The designee will determine if the respondent is responsible for the alleged policy violation(s), and, if so, issue (an) appropriate sanction(s). The parties will be notified in writing of the outcomes concurrently. If the respondent or complainant does not accept the administrative hearing resolution, either party may request by the stated deadline (typically 72 hours after notification of the outcome) a hearing before a hearing panel, as described below. If such a request is made, the Office of Student Conduct will then proceed in scheduling a hearing panel. The proposed outcome from the administrative hearing will not be disclosed to the hearing panel unless the complainant or respondent shares such information.

HEARING PANEL

If the Office of Student Conduct decides the case should be resolved through a hearing panel, the Office of Student Conduct will appoint a specially trained three-person hearing panel (typically including two faculty or staff members and one student) to resolve a complaint under this policy. A finding of responsibility must be based on a unanimous vote. Sanctions of suspension or expulsion must also be supported by a unanimous vote. A majority vote is required for all other sanctions.

The following procedures apply to a complaint that proceeds to a hearing panel:

- Notice. Both the complainant and the respondent will be notified at least 120 hours in advance of the date and time of the hearing and the names of the hearing panelists.

- Hearing Packet. In advance of the hearing, the Office of Student Conduct finalizes a packet with information it deems relevant to the case to be shared with the hearing panel. The hearing packet typically includes the investigator’s report (if applicable). The Office of Student Conduct will share a copy of that packet with both the complainant and the respondent at least 120 hours in advance of the hearing.

- Conflict of Interest. A complainant and/or respondent may challenge the participation of a panelist because of perceived conflict of interest, bias, or prejudice. Such challenges, including rationale, must be made within 48 hours of notification of the names of the hearing panelists. At its discretion, the Office of Student Conduct will determine whether such a conflict of interest exists and whether a panelist should be replaced. Postponement of a hearing may occur if a replacement panelist cannot be immediately identified.
• Witnesses. The hearing panel may, at its discretion, exclude witnesses or witness testimony the panel considers irrelevant or duplicative.

• Electronic Devices. A respondent, complainant, advisor, and/or witness may not bring electronic devices that capture or facilitate communication (e.g., computer, cell phone, audio/video recorder, etc.) into a hearing room, unless authorized by the hearing panel. The Office of Student Conduct will make an audio recording of the hearing to be kept on file for three years. Reasonable care will be taken to create a quality audio recording and minimize technical problems; however, technical problems that result in no recording or an inaudible one will not be a valid argument for appeal.

• Hearing Procedure. A hearing panel has general authority over the conduct of the hearing (e.g., it may set time frames for witness testimony and it may limit opening/closing statements or their length, etc.). The general course of procedure for a panel hearing is as follows: introductions; respondent’s statement accepting or denying responsibility; opening comments from the complainant; opening comments from the respondent; questions from the panel; testimony/questions of other material witnesses (if applicable); closing comments from the complainant; and, closing comments from the respondent. A complainant or respondent may not question each other or other witnesses directly, but may raise questions to be asked of that party through the hearing panel, which will determine whether to ask them. The hearing panel determines the relevancy of any information presented/submitted at the hearing and can exclude irrelevant information.

• Hearing Facilitator. A staff member from the Office of Student Conduct will serve as the non-voting hearing facilitator.

The complainant and respondent will receive verbal notification of the decision of a hearing panel no later than five business days after the hearing. Notification will be individually given to the respondent and complainant at approximately the same time. A written hearing report outlining the decision and rationale of the hearing panel will be delivered to the respondent and the complainant typically within 10 business days of the hearing.

SANCTIONS

Sanctions for a finding of responsibility include, but are not limited to, expulsion, suspension, disciplinary probation, recommended counseling, and/or other educational sanctions. In determining (a) sanction(s), the hearing body will consider whether the nature of the conduct at issue warrants removal from the university, either permanent (expulsion) or temporary (suspension). Other factors pertinent to the determination of what sanction applies include, but are not limited to, the nature of the conduct at issue, prior disciplinary history of the respondent (shared with a panel only upon a finding of responsibility for the allegation), previous university response to similar conduct, and university interests (e.g., in providing a safe environment for all).

LONG-TERM/INDEFINITE MEASURES AND/OR REMEDIES

The Director of Title IX Compliance and/or staff in the Office of Student Conduct will work with the complainant and respondent as applicable to identify and implement any appropriate/necessary long-term or permanent measures/remedies. The Director of Title IX Compliance and/or staff in the Office of Student Conduct will also identify appropriate remedies/measures to address any effects of substantiated conduct on the university community.

Long-term remedies/measures may include extending or making permanent any interim protective measures or implementing additional measures. The Director of Title IX Compliance and/or staff in the Office of Student Conduct will consider whether there is a need for additional measures/remedies, which may include “no contact” directives and reassignment or removal from a class or on-campus living area.

APPEALS

A respondent or complainant may appeal the hearing panel's decision by submitting a written appeal statement within five business days of the date the hearing report is sent to the parties. Appeals are limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins). The two grounds for appeal are:

1. New information not reasonably available at the time of the hearing that is material to the hearing panel’s decision; and/or
2. Procedural error(s) that materially impacted the hearing panel’s decision.

The appeal statement must identify the ground(s) for appeal. Note that an appeal is not a re-hearing of the case.

The composition of the Appellate Board for cases arising under this policy includes specially trained members of the university community appointed by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs. The chair of the Appellate Board or the chair's designee is responsible for selecting three-person panels from membership of the Appellate Board to consider appeals.
If, by majority vote, the appellate panel determines that a ground of appeal is substantiated, the panel will return the case to the Office of Student Conduct. Otherwise, the decision of the hearing panel stands. When a case is returned to the Office of Student Conduct, the Office of Student Conduct may decide to drop the case (e.g., based on insufficient information to believe that a policy violation may have occurred), send the case to the original hearing panel for reconsideration, send the case to a new hearing panel with the same or different charges, and/or implement any aspect of the disciplinary process. A different decision (i.e., the decision of responsibility and/or sanctions) may subsequently result.

Procedures

The Appellate Board’s role is limited to reviewing the hearing panel record, the appealing party’s ("appellant") written appeal statement, any response to that statement by the other party ("appellee"), and information presented at a meeting of the Appellate Board, if convened.

The appellate panel will typically notify the parties of its decision regarding an appeal in writing within 20 business days from receipt of the appeal statement. If the decision will take longer, the chair will inform the parties.

The following procedures guide the Appellate Board process:

- Appeal Statement. The written hearing report will include instructions for submitting an appeal. The chair may summarily deny an appeal if it is not based on one or both grounds of appeal.
- Composition of Panel. If the appeal is not summarily denied by the chair, the chair will convene a three-person panel and notify the appellant and appellee of the names of the panel members. The appellant and/or appellee may challenge the participation of an appellate panelist because of perceived conflict of interest, bias, or prejudice. Such challenges, including rationale, must be submitted in writing to the chair no later than 48 hours after notification of the names of the appellate panel members. The chair will determine whether such a conflict of interest exists and whether a panelist should be replaced.
- Response to Appeal. The chair will provide written notice to the appellee that an appeal has been submitted and will give the appellee an opportunity to review the appeal statement. The appellee may submit a written response to the appeal ("response"). The response is due five business days from the date the chair provides written notice of the appeal to the appellee and is limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins). The chair will provide the appellant an opportunity to review the response, though no additional opportunity to respond in writing will be provided to the appellant.
- Exceptions. The appellant and appellee may submit to the chair requests for exceptions to page limits or deadlines. Exceptions must be requested in advance of any deadline by sending an email to appeals@duke.edu, with justification for such request(s). If either party fails to meet a deadline or exceeds page limits without receiving an exception, the chair has the discretion to summarily reject an appeal or the appellate panel may disregard the response.
- Meetings. On its own or at the request of the appellant or appellee, the appellate panel may convene a meeting to give the parties an opportunity to review the reason(s) for the appeal or the response. If a meeting is convened, the appellate panel will invite both the appellant and appellee, who may bring an advisor of their choice to the meeting. The advisor’s role is limited to quietly conferring with their advisee, and may not address the appellate panel. In the event an appeal alleges a procedural error, the appellate panel may request that a staff member(s) in the Office of Student Conduct, the Office for Institutional Equity, and/or member(s) of the hearing panel attend the meeting to gather more information about the alleged procedural error.
- Written Decision. The Appellate Board will provide written notification of the final decision to the appellant and appellee at approximately the same time.

GETTING HELP

Any student at Duke University who experiences sexual/gender violence—regardless of sex/gender—may contact the Women’s Center at 919-684-3897 or email WCHelp@duke.edu. See “Support Services and Options for Complainants” below for additional information. In case of emergency or immediate threat, call 911 or Duke Police at 919-684-2444.
SUPPORT SERVICES AND OPTIONS FOR THE COMPLAINANT

A variety of support resources are available on campus and in the community to assist students in dealing with sexual misconduct, whether it happened recently or in the past. The following is a list of helpful resources. Additional resource information is available at studentaffairs.duke.edu/wc.

Information, advocacy, counseling, and emotional support. The Office of Gender Violence Prevention and Intervention (GVPI) provides education, advocacy, and support for students who experience sexual and relationship violence, sex/gender-based harassment, and sex/gender-based stalking, as well as for their friends and families. Students of any gender can receive information, support, and accompaniment regarding medical treatment, reporting options, academic and residential accommodations, referrals, legal options, and trauma-focused therapy. Walk-in or scheduled appointments with the GVPI Coordinator are available during business hours by calling 919-684-3897, emailing womensctd@duke.edu, or by visiting the Women’s Center located at 001 Crowell Building (underneath the Coffeehouse) on East Campus. Emergency after-hours assistance is available via pager at 919-970-2108. All services are free and confidential and do not require making a formal report to the police or the university.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) also offers ongoing counseling services; call 919-660-1000 for an appointment. For 24-hour crisis information and referral, contact the GVPI information line at 919-681-6882, the Dean on-Call (pager number 919-970-4169), or the Durham Crisis Response Center at 919-403-6562 (for 24-hour hotline). All services are confidential and do not require making a formal report to the police or the university.

Medical concerns. Students should seek medical attention immediately to have the most options for the prevention of pregnancy and sexually transmitted infections. Even if physical injuries are not apparent, one may have injuries as a result of sexual assault that are not easily seen. For immediate and urgent medical concerns, students may go directly to the Emergency Department (ED) of Duke Medical Center (off Erwin Road near Trent Hall). Duke Police (911 or 919-684-2444 from non-campus phones) can provide transportation without students having to make a report. Services available at the Emergency Department are: medical care, evidence collection, emergency contraception, and sexually transmitted infection prevention. Evidence can be collected anonymously. Evidence is best collected within 120 hours of the assault. Pursuing a criminal case is not necessary in order to have the evidence collected anonymously. A blind report can be filed that includes no identifying information other than a case number. A student may decide later whether to file a police report. Health insurance and the State of North Carolina may cover portions of the costs of medical care. The GVPI coordinator in the Women’s Center will help students address any concerns they have about covering the costs of the medical exam or other related expenses. Both the Emergency Department and Student Health have Sexual Assault Nurse Examiners (SANE), who are specially trained to work with individuals who have been sexually assaulted.

For less immediate medical concerns, students may schedule an appointment at Student Health (919-681-WELL). The services available are: medical care, emergency contraception, and sexually transmitted infection prevention. The student health fee covers all services, except for a minimal charge for emergency contraception. Staff from GVPI can accompany students to the ED or Student Health.

Reporting to the police. Sexual misconduct may be criminal in nature, and a student may choose to file a report with law enforcement. Duke Police (911 or 919-684-2444 from non-campus phones) will respond to emergencies and non-emergencies to provide assistance by intervening in cases of assault, providing transportation to the Emergency Department, taking reports of an assault, and/or investigating and participating in legal or disciplinary action. They are responsible for notifying the community in a case of continuing danger, issuing a trespass order that requires an individual to stay away from campus or a particular area of campus when needed, and providing referrals and information including how to obtain a restraining order. Assaults that occur off campus may fall under the jurisdiction of the Durham Police Department or other law enforcement agency. Students may contact the Durham Police directly (911 off campus or 919-560-4427/560-4609) or the GVPI office or Duke Police can help facilitate reporting. Blind reporting—filling a report without one’s name attached to it—is an available option with both Duke Police and Durham Police. Regardless of whether a complainant pursues a criminal complaint, the university will investigate the incident in question and take appropriate responsive action to ensure that the educational environment at Duke is free of harassment and to prevent the recurrence of a hostile environment, and, as appropriate, to remedy the effects of the harassment.
SUPPORT SERVICES AND OPTIONS FOR THE RESPONDENT

A variety of support resources are available to assist students who have been accused of sexual misconduct. Respondents are treated with respect before, during, and after the disciplinary process and are entitled to a presumption that there is not a violation of policy throughout the disciplinary process.

Information, counseling, and emotional support. The Office of Student Conduct maintains a pool of Disciplinary Advisors, who are students and staff trained in the disciplinary process and most frequently work with students who are under investigation for a possible violation of university policy. They offer information about how the process works, advice on how to approach each stage of the process, and can support students in attendance at a hearing. A respondent is given the name of a disciplinary advisor at the time of notification of an allegation, but may consult with whomever the respondent wishes for information and support. Within the Office of Student Conduct, the Associate Dean for Title IX Outreach and Response is available to work with respondents regarding interim measures and accommodations including, but not limited to, housing and academic accommodations.

DukeReach provides support for students who have been accused of a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, and can also assist with making off-campus referrals if requested. DukeReach is located in the Student Wellness Center, 305 Towerview Drive, Room 118; 919-681-2455; dukereach@duke.edu.

For 24-hour emergencies, crisis information, and referral, contact the Dean-on-Call (pager number 919-970-4169).

Confidential support. A respondent may discuss (an) alleged violation(s) of policy without the information being reported to the Office of Student Conduct with those who serve in a professional role in which communication is privileged under North Carolina law and to those whom the university has designated as a confidential resource consistent with Title IX. Those persons include:

- Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) staff: 919-660-1000; third floor of Student Wellness Building.
- Student Ombudsperson: 919-660-2444 or ada.gregory@duke.edu.
- Clergy from Religious Life: chapel.duke.edu/student_ministries/religious-life.
- Student Health staff: 919-681-9355; second floor of Student Wellness Building.

EXAMPLES OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Angela and Aaron have been in an ongoing relationship for a year and a half and have engaged in consensual sexual intercourse. One night while becoming intimate, Angela stops and says she doesn’t feel like having sex that night. Aaron continues to touch her, saying that she got him excited and it wasn’t fair of her to lead him on like that. Again, Angela tells him she does not want to have sex, and then is silent. Aaron decides she has given in, and proceeds to have sexual intercourse with her.

This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Aaron had sexual intercourse with Angela against her will. The fact that Angela has freely consented to sexual intercourse with Aaron in the past does NOT mean he has her consent in this situation.

Erin is talking to several of her friends in the hallway at a crowded party. Ryan, a student she knows from chemistry class, comes up behind her and places his arms around her waist. She says hi to Ryan and continues her conversation. Ryan gradually moves his hands up to her breasts. She turns to him and tells him to stop, saying she doesn’t want to be touched in that way and that he should have more respect for her. He laughs, tells her she takes herself too seriously, and again begins to grope her.

This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Ryan touched Erin in a sexual way without her consent, and continued to do so after she told him to stop. This behavior is a form of sexual/gender violence.

Kristen and Myra have been intimate for a few weeks. One night, Myra calls Kristen and asks her to come over. When she arrives, Myra kisses Kristen passionately and leads her into the bedroom. They each express their excitement and desire to “hook up,” and are soon making out heavily in Myra’s bed. After a while, Kristen tries to engage in oral sex with Myra. Myra tells Kristen that she really likes her, but that she doesn’t feel ready for that. Kristen tells Myra she’s just being shy, and ignores her when she repeats that she doesn’t feel ready. Finally, Kristen threatens to reveal on the Internet that Myra is a lesbian. Because Myra has not yet come out to her friends and family, she becomes frightened and silent. Kristen proceeds with oral sex.
This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Because of Kristen's manipulative and threatening arguments, Myra was afraid and unable to freely give her consent. Kristen did not receive consent from Myra and has committed sexual/gender violence.

Liz and Tom have been together for six months. Liz often tells her friends stories of Tom's sexual prowess, and decides to prove it to them. One night, she and Tom engage in consensual sexual intercourse. Without Tom's knowledge, Liz sets up her digital camera to videotape them having sex. The next evening, she uploads the video to an online video-sharing site and discusses it with her friends online.

This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Tom's consent to engage in sexual intercourse with Liz did NOT mean Liz had obtained his consent to videotape it. This is a form of sexual exploitation.

Andrew and Felix have been flirting with each other all night at a party. Around 12:30 a.m., Felix excuses himself to find a bathroom. Andrew notices Felix slurring his speech, Andrew wonders if Felix went to the bathroom to vomit. When Felix returns, the two begin flirting more heavily and move to a couch. As the conversation continues, the two become more relaxed and more physically affectionate. Andrew soon suggests they go back to his room, and Felix agrees. As they walk down the stairs, Andrew notices that Felix looks unstable and offers his arm for support and balance. When they get back to his room, Andrew leads Felix to the bed and they begin to become intimate. Felix becomes increasingly passive and appears disoriented. Andrew soon begins to have sexual intercourse with him. The next morning, Felix thinks they had sex but cannot piece together the events leading up to it.

This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Felix was passive, and the Policy states that consent may not be inferred from silence, passivity, or lack of active resistance. Moreover, Felix was clearly incapacitated by alcohol, and thus unable to freely consent to engage in sexual activity with Andrew. Although Andrew may not have known how much alcohol Felix had consumed, he saw indicators from which a reasonable person would conclude that Felix was incapacitated, and therefore unable to give consent. Andrew in no way had consent from Felix.

Denise is a graduate teaching assistant in Paul's economics class. She notes that he has not been performing well on take-home assignments and exams. Both of them have come to a party, each with their own group of friends. Denise has consumed one can of beer, while Paul is rather intoxicated. Denise sees Paul and approaches him. She flirts with him, telling him that she can help him improve his grades if he will hook up with her. As Paul turns to walk away, Denise grabs his buttocks and squeezes them.

This is a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Denise, in a position of power over Paul as his teaching assistant, attempted to arrange a quid pro quo sexual relationship. Additionally, she did not seek consent from Paul to touch him, even if a reasonable person could conclude that Paul was not too intoxicated in order to provide consent.

A student had recently visited another country; on his return, he wrote an article for The Chronicle in which he used sexually explicit terms and examples to describe the treatment of women in that country. Other students are offended by the article.

This would not be a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Sexual harassment is unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature that, because of its severity and/or persistence, interferes significantly with an individual's work or education. The conduct is evaluated from the perspective of a reasonable person and in consideration of the context of the behavior. It is not enough that other students are offended by the article for it to be a violation of the policy. Duke is committed to principles of academic freedom and conduct with a legitimate educational or related purpose will not be considered a policy violation.

Abby and Mike are graduate students working in the same lab. They have been dating for a year. Abby often calls Mike names and damages his belongings when she's upset. She once poured a soda over his laptop after she saw him talking to another woman. Last week, she threw a cell phone at his head when he was late picking her up from work.

This would be a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. Relationship violence, including domestic and dating violence, includes physical, sexual, emotional, economic, or psychological actions or threats of actions that a reasonable person in similar circumstances would find intimidating, frightening, terrorizing, or threatening.

Monica filed a complaint with the Office of Student Conduct alleging that, after she broke up with Marcus, Marcus has been stalking her. Marcus has told his friends about the complaint and several of them have launched a Twitter campaign threatening Monica and the witnesses supporting her claim if Monica doesn't drop the complaint.

The conduct by Marcus's friends would be a violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy. The policy prohibits retaliation against anyone who files a complaint or participates in the investigation of a complaint.
STUDENT CONDUCT PROCESS FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT ALLEGATIONS

Student complainant or third party reports incident of Sexual Misconduct to a) Office of Student Conduct (OSC) or b) to a university employee, who informs OSC and provides names of the parties involved, if known. Note: Employees designated as confidential resources (Student Health staff, CAPS staff, Women’s Center staff, clergy who are acting as such in their professional role at Duke, ombudsperson) are exempt from reporting to OSC.

An investigation may be conducted by the Office for Institutional Equity and a report of findings submitted to OSC. DukeReach will be offered as a resource for the respondent.

A determination will be made by OSC whether sufficient information exists to move forward with a hearing.

At the discretion of OSC, an administrative hearing may be conducted to resolve the matter. If both complainant and respondent accept resolution, the matter is resolved. If one or both do not, a hearing panel is convened.

A “no contact” directive may be put into place between the complainant and the respondent. Additional interim measures may be considered.

OSC forwards to Office of Gender Violence Prevention & Intervention (GVPI) in the Women’s Center a copy of the report. GVPI reaches out to the complainant to provide confidential support. A student who declines to meet with OSC may still meet with GVPI staff.

At the discretion of OSC, a three-person specially trained panel will consider the case. Respondent and complainant are invited to participate in hearing.

No later than five business days following the hearing, outcome will be conveyed individually to respondent and complainant at approximately the same time. Written notification will typically be made within 10 business days.

Both parties have a right to appeal within grounds of appeal to Appellate Board.

OSC sends the student complainant a letter offering to meet and outlines resources for support, including the option to file a report with the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Student complainant is informed of disciplinary option through the university. Student may participate in the disciplinary process or decline to do so. In some cases, if enough information is available to investigate or initiate some intervention with an accused student, the university will proceed even if the student declines to participate, keeping the complainant’s request for confidentiality to extent possible. Campus environment is evaluated when appropriate. OSC will discuss the matter with the student complainant (if the complainant chooses to meet with OSC) before deciding what to do.

Student complainant or third party reports incident of Sexual Misconduct to a) Office of Student Conduct (OSC) or b) to a university employee, who informs OSC and provides names of the parties involved, if known. RESOLUTION OF STUDENT CONFLICT AND ALLEGED VIOLATIONS OF UNIVERSITY POLICY
FILING A REPORT INVOLVING A STUDENT OR GROUP

Reports regarding student or group behavior may be filed with the Office of Student Conduct. Duke Police, the Office for Institutional Equity, academic deans, and offices within Student Affairs offer additional resources for students to address concerns. These offices work together in order to determine the most appropriate venue for resolution. In any situation where a party is unsure of whom to call, they may contact the Office of Student Conduct.

Any alleged violation of university policy, including academic dishonesty, is within the scope of the Office of Student Conduct. If the Office of Student Conduct determines that another office is more appropriate to handle the situation, the case may be referred to that office. (Violations that occur within residential areas will often be referred to Housing and Residence Life [HRL].)

The Office of Student Conduct coordinates a mediation program, which may be accessed upon referral or at the request of a student to resolve disputes between students.

In general, residence life staff will handle reports of conduct within residential areas unless the alleged behavior is of a serious nature or the student has had prior violations, in which case the case may be referred for disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct: 919-684-6938; studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct.

TYPES OF RESOLUTION

MEDIATION

Mediation is a process that empowers students to resolve their own disputes. Through mediation, a neutral third party assists students in coming to a peaceful and agreeable solution. The university encourages informal mediation whenever practical or appropriate. Students interested in utilizing the mediation program to resolve a conflict should contact the Office of Student Conduct. Staff within the Office of Student Conduct may also refer cases to mediation as appropriate. Ultimately, all parties involved must agree to mediation. If one party does not agree to mediation, or if the mediation fails, the Office of Student Conduct may refer a case to arbitration and/or disciplinary resolution. Failure to comply with the results of mediation may be cause to commence the disciplinary process.

ARBITRATION

Arbitration is a process by which students are given an opportunity to present information about a dispute to a neutral third party who renders a decision. Arbitration may be used in roommate conflicts or other relationship conflicts where residential status or participation/access privileges are at issue and mediation is not appropriate. The Office of Student Conduct or HRL may choose to send any case to arbitration. Arbitration will not result in a disciplinary record, but the arbitrator(s) may alter students’ living status, limit privileges, or invoke restrictions on participants. Failure to comply with the results of arbitration may be cause to commence the disciplinary process.

ALTERNATIVE/INFORMAL RESOLUTION

Generally, staff in Housing and Residence Life will informally resolve misconduct in the residence halls. Informal resolutions may include residential warnings or probation, relocation, community service, restitution, or educational initiatives. Students who are alleged to have committed serious infractions (e.g., drug or safety violations) or who repeatedly violate any residential and/or university policy will be subject to formal disciplinary action through the Office of Student Conduct.

Staff within the Office of Student Conduct may also choose to utilize an alternative/informal resolution process to resolve issues of student behavior. Failure to comply with the resolution may be cause to commence the disciplinary process. Records of alternative/informal resolution will be kept internally and will not be considered part of a student’s externally reportable disciplinary record, unless otherwise specifically stated.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Any case involving an alleged violation of community standards, fraternity and sorority organization policies, or university rules and regulations by an undergraduate student or group may be resolved through the undergraduate disciplinary system.
THE UNDERGRADUATE DISCIPLINARY SYSTEM

The purpose of the undergraduate disciplinary system is to promote honesty, fairness, respect, and accountability within the university community and to provide a fair and effective mechanism for resolving cases in which an undergraduate student (or group) is alleged to have violated the standards or policies of the university.

All reports of inappropriate student behavior may be filed with or forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct. Staff within the Office of Student Conduct will determine the most appropriate means by which to handle a report. Resolution may include mediation, arbitration, alternative/informal resolution, or disciplinary action.

ORGANIZATION

- The Office of Student Conduct is designated to oversee the disciplinary system for undergraduates. It also oversees and implements the procedures of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy for all students, and responds to alleged violations of student conduct policies that could be bias-/hate-related for all students.
- Hearing officers are designated to resolve disciplinary matters through informal or formal disciplinary resolution.
- The Undergraduate Conduct Board (UCB) is designated to resolve formal disciplinary matters that involve complicated circumstances, serious infractions of university policy, and/or repeated misconduct. The UCB is comprised of students, faculty, and staff. Consideration shall be given to the appointment of a board reflective of the population of the university community. Rising juniors and seniors are selected each spring semester to serve as student members. (Once selected, student members will serve for the remainder of their undergraduate careers, as long as they meet expectations.) Student co-chairs are elected by the board. Faculty members are appointed/approved by the Dean of Arts and Sciences or the Dean of the Pratt School of Engineering, or designee(s). Staff members are appointed/approved by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs.
- The Appellate Board considers appeals of students/groups found responsible and sanctioned through a panel hearing, and/or complainants in harassment-related cases. The Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs appoints the chair and other members of the Appellate Board, consisting of faculty, staff, and students.
- Disciplinary Advisors are available to assist students/groups through the disciplinary process. Advisors include students and staff who have been trained and are familiar with the disciplinary system. A list of advisors is available from the Office of Student Conduct.

SCOPE

- The university may respond to any report of behavior that occurred within a student’s undergraduate career, from application to graduation.
- Any undergraduate student is subject to disciplinary action. This includes students who have matriculated to, are currently enrolled in, are on leave from, or have been readmitted (following a dismissal) to programs of the university.
- The accused (also referred to as the respondent) may also be a cohesive unit of the university, such as a living group, athletic team, or other recognized organization.
- The university reserves the right to respond to any report of alleged misconduct on or off campus.
- Student group leaders most directly responsible may be held accountable for acting as an accomplice through action or negligence to the commission of prohibited acts at a group-identified event.
- In cases of alleged policy violations by a student enrolled in a joint degree program or interdisciplinary coursework within Duke, each school or unit (the home unit and the host unit) may have a stake in the adjudication. Thus, an ad hoc process shall be developed and an ad hoc panel may be formed with representatives from both institutions/units to handle the case. The sanctions may be different for each school or unit.
- For students doing inter-institutional coursework at other institutions, whether domestic or international, or for visiting students enrolled in classes at Duke, the home and the host institutions should confer and decide the process to be followed, which may include combined or separate elements. The sanctions may be different for each institution.
- The Office of Student Conduct exercises jurisdiction over any student alleged to have violated the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy.
- Alleged violations of Duke student conduct policies which could be bias-/hate-related should be communicated to the Office of Student Conduct (OSC), and, for students outside of Trinity College or the Pratt School of Engineering, to the appropriate administrator in the student’s school or college as well. Reports of alleged violations by undergraduates will be addressed through the undergraduate disciplinary process. For all other students, whichever entity—the school or OSC—learns of the allegation first will promptly notify the other and will schedule a conversation to determine how the allegation will be handled. The general expectation is that Resolution of Student Conflict

OSC will handle the case, though the school or college has the authority to take the lead in investigating and/or adjudicating any alleged behavior it feels is best positioned to handle. If OSC handles the case, it will follow the investigation, hearing, and appellate procedures set forth in this Guide; the college or school will implement any final sanction. If the case is handled by the college or school, it will follow the college’s/school’s procedures as published and disseminated by the college/school.

- The Office for Institutional Equity (Smith Warehouse, Bay 8, 919-684-8222) receives reports and handles complaints alleging sexual misconduct by employees and all other non-Duke students, as well as complaints alleging discrimination by any member of the Duke community (including students), under the Duke Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct, available at bit.ly/dukeharassmentpolicy.

THE DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

Reports

Reports of behavior alleged to violate university policy should be filed with or forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct.

Interim Measures

Prior to investigation and resolution, interim measures may be placed on a student/group by the Office of Student Conduct and/or HRL staff to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the university community or any member of it. These measures may include a “no contact order,” removal of privileges, removal from or relocation within the residential community, and suspension of activity.

An interim suspension of a student from the university may be imposed by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs, or designee. See Appendix C - Administrative Action Policy (page 67) for additional details. Should an interim suspension be issued and resolution of the matter that prompted it not be resolved within two weeks, the interim suspension may convert to an administrative leave of absence.

Participation

The university invites students/groups to participate fully in all aspects of the disciplinary process. If a student/group elects not to participate in any part of the process (e.g., submitting a written statement or participating in a hearing), the conduct officer/hearing body may proceed without benefit of that student’s/group’s input. A student/group will be held accountable for any sanctions issued as a result of a hearing.

Investigation

Office of Student Conduct staff and/or designee(s) will gather information regarding the alleged incident in order to determine the appropriate means of resolution.

Investigations may include interviews, a review of related documents, requests for written statements from any person involved in the alleged incident, and review of material available electronically. Students and organizations are encouraged to be forthright and as specific as possible when offering information related to an investigation, but may choose the extent to which they share information.

Cases may be dropped for insufficient information, or referred for mediation, arbitration, informal resolution or disciplinary action. In order for a case to be referred for disciplinary action, there must be sufficient information to believe that a policy violation may have occurred and that the alleged individual/group may be responsible.

Relevance

The Office of Student Conduct, the investigator from the Office for Institutional Equity, or the hearing panel, as appropriate, may exclude and/or redact:

- Information that has no bearing on a fact at issue in the case, is more prejudicial than probative, or is duplicative;
- Medical or mental health information, treatment and/or diagnosis, unless relevant to a fact at issue in the case;
- Sensitive personally identifying information (e.g., social security numbers, contact information, etc.).

Polygraph examinations and/or their results are neither admissible nor considered in any part of the disciplinary process.

Referral for Disciplinary Action

If a case is referred for disciplinary action, the student/group will be notified of the incident in question and the policy violation(s) under consideration, and will be given an opportunity to respond. There are several means by which to resolve disciplinary situations. The Office of Student Conduct will determine which avenue is most appropriate to pursue.

Disciplinary hearings are not trials and are not constrained by the same rules of procedure and evidence typically used in a court of law. The university disciplinary system operates under a standard of fairness, which includes an opportunity for the student/group to be notified of the alleged incident and policy violations under consideration and an opportunity to be heard.
Resolution through a Disciplinary Hearing

Any case may be forwarded directly to a disciplinary hearing if there is sufficient information to believe that a policy violation may have occurred and that the alleged individual/group may be responsible. Most cases will be referred to administrative hearings. Cases that are serious in nature, involve complicated facts, and/or involve students/groups with previous disciplinary violations may be forwarded to the Undergraduate Conduct Board for resolution. (See “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” on page 37 for adjudication of allegations of sexual misconduct.)

Individuals or groups who deny responsibility for serious offenses of university policy and who face possible suspension or expulsion/dissolution from the university have the right to request a hearing before a five-person panel of the UCB. Individuals or groups who accept responsibility for alleged violations of university policy, but are unable to agree on a proposed sanction, which may include suspension or expulsion/dissolution, have the right to request a hearing before a three-person panel of the UCB. (The conduct officer may, due to the circumstances of the case, elect to utilize a five-person panel.)

Resolution through Agreement

If a student/group accepts responsibility for (an) alleged violation(s), the conduct officer, or designee, may propose (an) appropriate sanction(s) based on the specifics of the case, precedent and university interests.

If the student/group accepts responsibility and agrees to the proposed sanction(s), the student/group waives their right to a hearing and/or appeal, the resolution becomes final, and the outcome is recorded on the student/group’s disciplinary record. If the student/group accepts responsibility, but is unable to agree to the proposed sanction(s), the case will be forwarded to a hearing to determine (an) appropriate sanction(s).

If the student/group denies responsibility, the case will be forwarded to a hearing to determine responsibility and (a) sanction(s) as appropriate.

DISCIPLINARY HEARING TYPES

There are two types of hearings. Most cases are decided upon through an administrative hearing, which is a discussion between the student/group and a hearing officer. Cases that are serious in nature, involve complicated facts, and/or involve students/groups with previous disciplinary violations may be forwarded to the Undergraduate Conduct Board for resolution. Students who face a possible sanction of suspension or expulsion may request to have their case heard by a panel of the UCB. Groups who face possible dissolution may request a hearing by a panel of the UCB.

(See “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” on page 37 for adjudication of allegations of sexual misconduct.)

I have received an e-mail from the Office of Student Conduct that says I have been scheduled for an administrative hearing. What does that mean?

An administrative hearing is a conversation between you and a staff member to discuss your alleged involvement in reported behavior. The staff member is interested in hearing your perspective on what may have happened and will discuss with you how the matter might be resolved. The conversation may also focus on what you have learned or can take away from the incident.

Upon receiving the e-mail, review its contents carefully and ensure you are available at the time indicated in the message. If not, call the Office of Student Conduct at 919-684-6938 to schedule a new appointment. Next, familiarize yourself with the policies that may be at issue, which are also listed in your letter.

During an administrative hearing, listen carefully, share your perspective on the matter, and ask questions. Most often, the staff member is able to resolve the matter with you directly.

Following the administrative hearing, you will receive another e-mail describing the decision made by the staff member, sanctions (if appropriate), and details for having the matter reconsidered, if you wish.
Administrative Hearings

An administrative hearing is a discussion between a student/group alleged to be in violation of university policy and a hearing officer. Students/groups will be notified (typically via e-mail) of the specific violations under consideration in advance of an administrative hearing. The hearing officer will review the report with the student or group and give the student/group an opportunity to respond. The hearing officer will determine whether the student/group is responsible for the alleged policy violation, and, if so, issue (an) appropriate sanction(s). Administrative hearings are conducted in private, except under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, in which a student may be accompanied by an advisor of the student’s choice.

Upon proper notice, if a student/group fails to attend an administrative hearing, the hearing officer may proceed to resolve the case without benefit of that student/group’s input.

All decisions of responsibility are based on clear and convincing information, except for allegations arising under the Harassment Policy and the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, which are decided based on the standard of preponderance of evidence. In determining appropriate sanctions, consideration may be given to the nature of and circumstances surrounding the violation, the student’s/group’s acceptance of responsibility, prior disciplinary violations, the impact of a sanction on the student/group, precedent cases, university interests, and any other information deemed relevant by a hearing panel/officer. Should a hearing officer determine that a violation was motivated in part or whole by race, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sex, genetic information, or age, the hearing officer may consider this an aggravating factor that increases the stringency of the sanction(s).

If a student/group does not accept the administrative hearing resolution, the student/group may request by the stated deadline a hearing before a panel of the Undergraduate Conduct Board.

Undergraduate Conduct Board Hearings

The Undergraduate Conduct Board is a group of students, faculty, and staff appointed to hear alleged infractions of university policy. The board is charged with determining whether a student's/group's actions constitute a violation of university policy and, if so, an appropriate response. In determining an appropriate response, consideration is given to the student’s/group’s interests as well as the university's interest in maintaining high standards.

All UCB hearings are conducted in private. Any student whose presence is required by the conduct officer at a hearing will be excused from any other university responsibility.

Respondents, complainants, advisors, and/or witnesses may not bring devices that capture or facilitate communication (e.g., computer, cell phone, audio/video recorder, etc.) into a hearing room, unless authorized by the hearing panel.

Accused Students/Groups. Accused students/groups are entitled to the following procedural rights when facing a hearing before the Undergraduate Conduct Board:

- to be informed that the student/group is under investigation;
- to seek advice from anyone;
- to seek advice from a trained advisor made available by the university;
- to be given an opportunity to respond to allegations;
- to choose the extent to which the student/group shares information;
- to be notified of a hearing at least 120 hours (five days) in advance (notification will include the time, date and location of the hearing as well as names of hearing panel members and witnesses);
- to challenge any panel member if there is a significant conflict of interest;
- to know of and review in advance written information and allegations presented to the hearing panel;
- to be accompanied by an advisor to the hearing (who must be a member of the university community [defined below], except in cases arising under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, in which case a student can select any advisor of the student’s choice);
- to a fair and impartial hearing;
- to rebut any witness testimony presented against the student/group;
- to present additional witnesses or information at the hearing (the relevancy of which may be determined by the hearing panel);
- to be found responsible only if the information meets a clear and convincing threshold (or preponderance of evidence standard in cases arising under the Harassment Policy or Student Sexual Misconduct Policy); and
- to appeal based upon clearly stated grounds.
Advisors. Accused students/groups are encouraged to seek advice and support from whomever they choose throughout the disciplinary process. An advisor may accompany an accused student/group or a student complainant to a UCB hearing. The advisor may be from the designated list of trained student and staff advisors available through the Office of Student Conduct, or may be any member of the university community. A member of the university community is defined as a current student, or a faculty or staff member currently employed by the university. (In cases arising under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, a complainant and respondent may bring any advisor of their choice to a UCB hearing or any meeting.) For fraternities and sororities, the advisor may also be the chapter advisor. The advisor may not be a member of the UCB and may not serve as a material or expert witness. The role of the advisor is to assist and support the student/group through the disciplinary process. The advisor’s role in a hearing is limited to quietly conferring with the respondent through written correspondence or whisper, and the advisor may not address any other participant or the hearing panel.

In a single hearing with multiple respondents and/or complainants, an advisor may attend the hearing with only one party (i.e., a unique advisor for each participant). The trained student and staff disciplinary advisors are valuable resources, thoroughly familiar with the conduct process. In the event that a recommended advisor is unavailable, an accused student/group may ask for the names of additional advisors from the Office of Student Conduct.

Hearing Panels. Hearing panels charged with determining an outcome and a sanction shall consist of three students and two members of the faculty or staff selected from the UCB. Hearing panels charged with determining only a sanction shall consist of two students and one faculty or staff member selected from the UCB. (In some circumstances, the conduct officer may choose to utilize a five-person panel consisting of three students and two faculty or staff members to determine a sanction.) A staff member from the Office of Student Conduct serves as a hearing facilitator and is a non-voting presence in the hearing.

(See “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” on page 37 for hearing panel composition of these cases.)

An accused student/group may agree to a smaller panel or different student-to-faculty/staff ratio in the event that a full panel is not available. A complainant and/or respondent may challenge the participation of a panelist because of perceived conflict of interest, bias, or prejudice. Such challenges, including rationale, must be made within 48 hours of notification of the names of the hearing panelists. At its discretion, the Office of Student Conduct will determine whether a conflict of interest exists and whether a panelist should be replaced. Postponement of a hearing may occur if a replacement panelist cannot be immediately identified.

At times of the year when regular panels are not available (e.g., during the summer or semester breaks), the conduct officer may appoint a special hearing panel, which may include members of the university community who are not part of the Undergraduate Conduct Board or may have a different composition of students/faculty/staff than panels held during the normal academic year.

Notice. An accused student/group will be notified of a UCB hearing at least 120 hours (five days) in advance. The notice will include the date and time of the hearing, the specific charges at issue, and the names of the panel members. At times of the year when 120 hours of notice is not practical due to a student’s pending graduation, study abroad, or participation in a university-sponsored activity (e.g., DukeEngage), a student must either waive this right or not participate in the pending activity until the matter is resolved.

An accused student/group will also receive in advance of the hearing a copy of written information given to the hearing panel. The conduct officer may include information clarifying or noting any additional information gathered through the investigation without expressing any personal opinion about the merits of the case. In cases not involving an alleged violation of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, any additional material not included in a hearing packet that a complainant or respondent wishes to have reviewed by the hearing panel must be submitted to the Office of Student Conduct no later than 72 hours before the hearing. If deemed relevant by the Office of Student Conduct, that material will be shared with the complainant/respondent and the hearing panel.

What does it mean when I am asked to enter a plea at a hearing of the Undergraduate Conduct Board?

A plea is your opportunity to formally state your acceptance or denial of responsibility for the alleged policy violation(s). You will be asked to enter a separate plea for each allegation. Your options are:

- “Responsible,” which means that you accept responsibility for the policy violation. The panel will consider whether to affirm your plea.

- “Not responsible,” which means that you do not accept responsibility for the policy violation. The panel will consider whether or not you are responsible.

- “Responsible in part,” which means that you accept responsibility for the policy violation, but you feel that there are additional factors for the panel to consider that mitigate full accountability for the violation. The panel will consider whether or not you are responsible. Note: You should not plead “responsible in part” if you truly do not feel you are responsible for the alleged policy violation.
The complainant will be notified of the hearing if the complainant's presence is required. Upon request, the complainant may also receive a copy of the written information given to the hearing panel.

Upon proper notice, if the student/group fails to attend the hearing, the hearing panel may proceed in their absence.

Witnesses. The conduct officer may request the presence of any witness with pertinent information about a case. If a witness is unidentified or unavailable to attend the hearing, the witness's statement may not constitute a sole or substantial basis for determining responsibility. If the witness is necessary and unidentified or unavailable, the conduct officer or the chair of the hearing panel may suspend or dismiss the proceedings.

The accused student/group and complainant may bring relevant material witnesses to speak on their behalf. Absent exceptional circumstances and for all alleged policy violations except that of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, the accused student/group and/or complainant should inform the conduct officer in writing at least 72 hours in advance of the hearing the names of the witnesses and to what they will attest. The panel may determine the extent to which witnesses will be permitted in the hearing, including relevancy of questioning and information presented.

Procedure. The general course of procedure for a UCB hearing is as follows: introductions; plea(s) from the accused; opening comments from complainant(s) (if applicable); opening comments from accused; questions; testimony/questions of other material witnesses (if applicable); closing comments from complainant (if applicable); closing comments from accused.

The panel may impose time limits on any stage of the procedure. The panel may also determine the relevance of any witness or information to be presented and/or considered by the hearing panel.

Information to be Considered by the Panel. The panel may consider any information it deems relevant, including documentation and expressions of opinion. If the panel needs additional information during a hearing, such as verification of a fact at issue, an expert opinion, etc., the panel may request such information and may suspend its decision until such information is obtained. The accused student/group will have the right to respond to any additional information that is to be used in considering an outcome.

Outcome. Based on clear and convincing information (or preponderance of evidence in cases arising from the Harassment Policy and the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy) considered during the hearing, the panel may find a student/group responsible for an alleged violation by majority vote. (In cases arising from the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy, a finding of responsibility for a violation must be unanimous.) The panel, also by majority vote, may dismiss any charge.

What is “clear and convincing information?”

Two phrases that help define “clear and convincing” are “reasonably certain” and “highly probable.” It is information that produces a firm belief that the allegations of misconduct are true. It is a standard of evidence between the standards called “preponderance of evidence” and “beyond a reasonable doubt.” Clear and convincing information requires proof sufficient to convince ordinarily prudent-minded people that an allegation of misconduct is true. The proof need not be fully conclusive, but should cause one to be convinced that the allegations are true.

- Adapted from the Indiana University Judicial Officer Manual, 2002-2003

What is “preponderance of evidence?”

A preponderance of evidence means that it is more likely than not that an allegation of misconduct occurred.

Upon finding a student/group responsible for a violation of university policy, the panel may determine and impose (an) appropriate sanction(s). Consideration may be given to the nature of and circumstances surrounding the violation, the student’s/group’s acceptance of responsibility, prior disciplinary violations, the impact of a sanction on the student/group, precedent cases, university interests, and any other information deemed relevant by the hearing panel. Should a hearing panel determine that a violation was motivated in part or whole by race, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sex, genetic information, or age, the hearing panel may consider this an aggravating factor that increases the stringency of the sanction(s). All sanctions must be decided by majority vote with the exception of suspension or expulsion of an individual or dissolution of a group. These sanctions must be supported unanimously by a three-person panel or by four members of a five-person panel.
Notification and Record of the Hearing Outcome. The panel chair and/or the conduct officer will notify the accused student/group of the outcome of the hearing. A written hearing report describing the outcome, with a brief explanation of the reasoning, will be given to the accused student/group.

The complainant will be informed of the outcome of a hearing in accordance with federal guidelines. Complainants in cases arising from the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy will receive a written report of the hearing outcome.

An audio recording of each hearing will be made by the conduct officer and kept on file for three years. Reasonable care will be taken to create a quality recording and minimize technical problems; however, technical problems that result in no recording or an inaudible one will not be a valid argument for appeal.

SANCTIONS

Any disciplinary hearing may result in penalties (singly or in combination), including, but not limited to, those from the following list. In determining appropriate sanctions, consideration may be given to the nature of and circumstances surrounding the violation, the student’s/group’s acceptance of responsibility, prior disciplinary violations, the impact of a sanction on the student/group, precedent cases, university interests and any other information deemed relevant by a hearing panel/office. Should a hearing panel/office determine at any point during the investigation or adjudication of a violation that a violation was motivated in part or whole by race, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sex, genetic information, or age, the hearing panel/office may consider this information an aggravating factor that increases the stringency of the sanction(s).

For cases resolved through the Undergraduate Conduct Board, all sanctions are decided by majority vote with the exception of a suspension or expulsion of an individual or dissolution of a group. These sanctions must be supported unanimously by a three-person panel or by four members of a five-person panel.

EXPULSION

Dismissal and permanent removal from the university without possibility of readmission or reinstatement. A permanent notation to that effect is made on the student’s permanent academic record.

DEGREE REVOCATION

A student’s degree may be revoked. In such a case, a permanent notation to that effect is made on the student’s permanent academic record.

SUSPENSION

A suspension is an involuntary dismissal from the university for a specified period of time, which may include the current semester and such additional semesters as deemed appropriate by the hearing panel/office.

Readmission as an undergraduate student in good standing is contingent upon satisfaction of any requirements stated in the original sanction. Upon a student’s readmission to and matriculation in the university, the student is placed on disciplinary probation for at least one semester or for as long as a hearing panel/office determines is appropriate. Readmission for graduate/professional students is coordinated through their respective dean.

As suspension constitutes an involuntary withdrawal from the university, a permanent notation to that effect is made on the student’s permanent academic record.

A student who is suspended after having satisfied all degree requirements must apply for readmission in accordance with normal procedures. If re-admitted, the student’s degree will be awarded at the regular conferral date for the final semester of the suspension period. The student may not participate in commencement exercises until re-admitted.

In the event that a disciplinary suspension and an academic withdrawal occur simultaneously, the two withdrawals are to be in effect consecutively.

Students suspended twice as a consequence of having been found responsible for academic misconduct are eligible to apply for readmission no sooner than five years after the date of the second withdrawal.

DISSOLUTION (GROUP)

The privilege of a group to be recognized at Duke University may be suspended or revoked (dissolution).

SUSPENSION OF ACTIVITY (GROUP)

Residential or cohesive units may be suspended for a specified time period from activities sponsored, cosponsored, performed by, or attended by its members on and/or off campus. A suspension is generally followed by disciplinary probation for a specified period of time.
DISCIPLINARY PROBATION
A status imposed on a student for a specific period of time during which another violation of university policy or violation of any of the conditions of the probation shall result in an augmented disciplinary action, including the possibility of suspension. Disciplinary probation restricts a student’s ability to study away from Duke through the Global Education Office for Undergraduates, participate in DukeEngage, and be released early from the three-year residency requirement. It also may impact other opportunities in which a student’s disciplinary record is considered as a criterion for participation.

DISCIPLINARY PROBATION (GROUP)
A status imposed on a group for a specific period of time during which another violation of university policy or violation of any of the conditions of the probation shall result in an augmented disciplinary action, including the possibility of suspension of activity and/or dissolution.

FORMAL WARNING
A formal written reprimand for violation of the specified policy(ies).

ADMONITION
A written notice indicating violation of the specified policy(ies). The resolution of this case will not become part of the student’s/group’s external disciplinary record (i.e., it will be treated as an informal resolution) unless there is a subsequent university policy violation.

WITHDRAWAL OF PRIVILEGES
This may include, but is not limited to, withdrawal of the privilege to have a car on campus, park on campus, attend or participate in university programs or activities (such as sporting events, intramurals, performances, graduation exercises, host/sponsor events, etc.), or maintain computer account privileges.

HOUSING LICENSE RESTRICTIONS/REVOCATION
A student’s/group’s privilege to live on campus may be restricted or revoked. This may include relocation, revocation for a period of time or permanent removal from the residential community. (Refunds for revocation may be denied based on HRL policies.)

EXCLUSION
A student or group may be excluded from access to or use of specified university-owned premises and/or facilities.

NO CONTACT ORDER
A student or group may be prohibited from communicating with a named individual.

RESTITUTION
Payment for all or a portion of injury or damages to person(s) or property caused by an individual or a group.

FINE
Payment to Duke University of a reasonable sum of money by an individual or group.

COMMUNITY SERVICE
Specified length of time during which a student or group will perform in a service capacity at the university or in the Durham community beyond any volunteering with which the student/group may already be involved. Before starting service, it must be pre-approved by a conduct officer. Failure to complete community service within the specified period, and present verification, may result in additional hours assigned or further disciplinary action.

MENTAL HEALTH/MEDICAL ASSESSMENT AND/OR TREATMENT
A hearing panel/officer may recommend or require a student to seek a mental health/medical assessment from CAPS, Student Health, or other appropriate professional. The hearing panel/officer will not be privy to the contents of that assessment without the permission of the student but may require verification that the assessment was completed and that the student followed through with recommendations of the professional.
EDUCATIONAL PROJECTS/INITIATIVES

Students or groups may be required to complete a project or a written assignment, attend an educational program, or seek assistance from the Academic Skills Instructional Program, the Writing Studio, DukeReach, or other university resources.

APPEALS

A student/group found responsible through a hearing panel ("respondent") and/or a complainant in a case involving harassment may appeal the hearing panel’s decision by submitting a written appeal statement within five business days of the date the hearing report is sent to the respondent (and complainant, as applicable). Appeals are limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins). The two grounds for appeal are:

1. New information not reasonably available at the time of the hearing that is material to the hearing panel’s decision; and/or
2. Procedural error(s) that materially impacted the hearing panel’s decision.

The appeal statement must identify the ground(s) for appeal. Note that an appeal is not a re-hearing of the case.

The composition of the Appellate Board includes members of the university community appointed by the Vice Provost/ Vice President for Student Affairs. The chair of the Appellate Board or the chair’s designee is responsible for selecting three-person panels from membership of the Appellate Board to consider appeals.

If, by majority vote, the appellate panel determines that a ground of appeal is substantiated, the panel will return the case to the Office of Student Conduct. Otherwise, the decision of the hearing panel stands. When a case is returned to the Office of Student Conduct, the Office of Student Conduct may decide to drop the case (e.g., based on insufficient information to believe that a policy violation may have occurred), send the case to the original hearing panel for reconsideration, send the case to a new hearing panel with the same or different charges, and/or (re)implement any aspect of the disciplinary process. A different decision (i.e., the decision of responsibility and/or sanctions) may subsequently result.

PROCEDURES

The Appellate Board’s role is limited to reviewing the hearing panel record, the appealing party’s ("appellant") written appeal statement, any response to that statement by the other party ("appellee") as applicable, and information presented at a meeting of the Appellate Board, if convened.

The appellate panel will typically notify the parties of its decision regarding an appeal in writing within 20 business days from receipt of the appeal statement. If the decision will take longer, the chair will inform the parties.

The following procedures guide the Appellate Board process:

- Appeal Statement. The written hearing report will include instructions for submitting an appeal. The chair of the Appellate Board may summarily deny an appeal if it is not based on one or both grounds of appeal.

- Composition of Panel. If the appeal is not summarily denied by the chair, the chair will convene a three-person panel and notify the appellant and appellee of the names of the panel members. When possible, the chair will select at least one Appellate Board member from the school community of the respondent (and/or complainant, if applicable). The appellant and/or appellee may challenge the participation of an appellate panelist because of perceived conflict of interest, bias, or prejudice. Such challenges, including rationale, must be made within 48 hours of notification of the names of the appellate panelists. At its discretion, the chair of the appellate panel will determine whether such a conflict of interest exists and whether a panelist should be replaced. Postponement of an appellate hearing may occur if a replacement panelist cannot be immediately identified.

- Response to Appeal By Appellee (In Cases Involving Harassment or Sexual Misconduct). The chair will provide written notice to the appellee that an appeal has been submitted and will give the appellee an opportunity to review the appeal statement. The appellee may submit a written response to the appeal ("response"). The response is due five business days from the date the chair provides written notice of the appeal to the appellee and is limited to five pages (12-point font, 1-inch margins). The chair will provide the appellant an opportunity to review the response, though no additional opportunity to respond in writing will be provided to the appellant.

- Exceptions. The appellant (and appellee as applicable) may submit to the chair requests for exceptions to page limits or deadlines. Exceptions must be requested in advance of any deadline by sending an email to appeals@duke.edu, with justification for such request(s). If either party fails to meet a deadline or exceeds page limits without receiving an exception, the chair has the discretion to summarily reject an appeal or the appellate panel may disregard the response.
• Meetings. On its own or at the request of the appellant (or appellee, if applicable), the appellate panel may convene a meeting to give the party(ies) an opportunity to amplify the reason(s) for the appeal or the response. (A complainant or respondent in a case arising under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy may bring an advisor of their choice to the meeting with the appellate panel. In such case, the advisor’s role is limited to quietly conferring with the complainant or respondent through written correspondence or whisper, and may not address the appellate panel.) In the event an appeal alleges a procedural error, the appellate panel may request that (a) staff member(s) in the Office of Student Conduct, the Office for Institutional Equity, and/or member(s) of the hearing panel attend the meeting to gather more information about the alleged procedural error.

• Written Decision. The Appellate Board will provide written notification of the final decision to the appellant (and appellee, if applicable, at approximately the same time).

DISCIPLINARY RECORDS/STUDENT STATUS

When students/groups are found responsible for a violation of university policy through an administrative or panel hearing, or accept responsibility through an agreement, the case will be recorded on a student's/group's disciplinary record. (See “Admonition” on page 60 under “Sanctions” for recording of these resolutions.) The record will be maintained by the Office of Student Conduct and kept in accordance with FERPA. Individual disciplinary records are kept on file until a student graduates or eight years from the date of the student’s matriculation (whichever occurs first), except in cases resulting in suspension or expulsion, in which disciplinary records are kept indefinitely.

STATUS OF A STUDENT/GROUP PENDING FINAL RESOLUTION OF A DISCIPLINARY CASE

Until a final resolution is determined, the status of a student/group will not change unless interim measures have been imposed to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the university community or any member of it. A student with disciplinary action pending, however, is not eligible to graduate and may not participate in commencement exercises until the student’s case is resolved. A student currently on leave, suspended, or withdrawn from Duke who has a pending disciplinary matter is not eligible to seek readmission until that matter is resolved.

DISCIPLINARY HOLD

At any time after the filing of a report, the conduct officer or designee, after consulting with a student’s academic dean, may place a disciplinary hold on the academic and/or financial records of any student pending the outcome of proceedings or to enforce a disciplinary sanction. A disciplinary hold may prevent, among other things, registration, enrollment, matriculation, the release of transcripts, and the awarding of a degree.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION WHILE CIVIL/CRIMINAL CHARGES PENDING

Students may be accountable to both civil authorities and to the university for acts that violate local, state or federal laws. (Students are encouraged to seek advice of legal counsel when they face criminal charges.) Disciplinary action through university processes concurrent with criminal action does not subject a student to “double jeopardy.”

The university operates under different policies, procedures and standards and thus, will not be bound by the findings of a court of law. If the court’s outcome satisfies the university’s interests, such outcome may be recorded on the student’s disciplinary record without invoking the university disciplinary process. Should any criminal proceeding result in a felony conviction, as a result of an incident on or off campus, the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs reserves the right to summarily dismiss a student.

University disciplinary action will normally proceed during the pendency of a criminal or civil action. A student may request, however, that the university disciplinary process be placed on hold until criminal actions are resolved. The conduct officer or designee will decide whether this request will be granted. In such a case, interim measures may be imposed. The university reserves the right to proceed with the disciplinary process at any point.
APPENDIX A – THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF DUKE UNIVERSITY

The judicial system of the university shall consist of the University Judicial Board and a judicial board for each of the communities hereafter defined. (The undergraduate disciplinary system is part of the larger university judicial system.)

AUTHORITY OVER POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Responsibility for prescribing and enforcing rules and regulations governing student conduct rests ultimately with the Board of Trustees of Duke University and, by delegation, with administrative officers of the university and of the college and school.

The policies and procedures governing the conduct of undergraduate students may be amended at any time by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs and may be implemented with adequate notice to the university community.

COMMUNITY JUDICIAL BOARDS

There shall be an undergraduate community consisting of the undergraduates in Trinity College of Arts and Sciences and the Pratt School of Engineering; a Divinity School community; a Fuqua School of Business community; a Law School community; a Medical School community; an Allied Health community consisting of all degree and certificate (i.e., paramedical, nondegree) students in the School of Allied Health; a Nicholas School of the Environment and Earth Sciences community; a School of Nursing community; and a Graduate School community. Each community shall have such judicial system as its governing body may provide.

THE UNIVERSITY JUDICIAL BOARD

Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the University Judicial Board shall be limited to cases arising out of the pickets and protests regulations and cases involving more than one of the communities as determined by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs in consultation with the president and the chair of the University Judicial Board.

The University Judicial Board shall have jurisdiction over members of the student body, members of the faculty, and administrative personnel of the university not subject to the Personnel Policy Manual.

However, all alleged violations of the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy in which a student is named as a respondent are handled through the procedures outlined in “Student Sexual Misconduct Policy: Duke’s Commitment to Title IX” (see page 37).

Filing of Charges; Responsibilities of Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs

- The Office of the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs shall have responsibility for receiving complaints, conducting investigations, and preferring charges concerning offenses within the jurisdiction of the board.

- The University Judicial Board shall hear no case without a finding of probable cause made by the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs, whose signature to the charge or charges shall constitute sufficient evidence of such finding.

- To assist the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA) in the investigation of complaints, the gathering of evidence, and the preparation of charges, investigative and judicial aides may be appointed by the VPSA and shall serve at the VPSA’s pleasure and under the direction of the VPSA. The number and specific duties of such aides shall be determined by the VPSA, who shall be fully responsible for all duties performed by them in their capacity as aides.

- The Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs shall subpoena witnesses as directed by the University Judicial Board.

- The Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs may delegate all or any portion of their duties as regards these judicial procedures to an aide or aides. The VPSA shall be responsible for the discharge of all duties thus delegated.

Membership

The University Judicial Board shall consist of a chair appointed by the president, five faculty members (two of whom shall be from the Law School) appointed by the Executive Committee of the Academic Council, and two student members from each of the communities (except in the case of the undergraduate community where there should be four members) elected by each community’s judicial board. The chair of the board shall select five-person panels consisting of a chair and an equal number of students and faculty. Cases referred to the board shall be assigned to the panels in rotation, provided that a member of a panel may, at the member’s request, be excused from sitting on a case by the chair of the board, who may appoint a substitute from among the other members of the board. Each panel shall be known as a “Hearing Committee of the University Judicial Board.”

Terms of Members
Faculty members shall normally serve for two-year terms, but are eligible for reappointment. The terms should be staggered in order to provide continuity. Two of the initial appointees shall be appointed for one-year terms. Student members shall serve for one-year terms, although they may be eligible for re-election. The board has the right to remove any member of the board for cause by a vote of a two-thirds majority of all members. The vacancy shall be filled promptly according to the original procedure.

Conduct of the Hearing
• The hearing will be conducted in private unless the accused requests an open hearing. If any objection is raised to conducting an open hearing in any particular case, the Hearing Committee of the University Judicial Board will decide the issue by majority vote. If the decision is made not to hold an open hearing, the accused shall be informed in writing of the reasons for the decision.
• The university and the accused may be represented by an adviser of their choice.
• The board shall promulgate its own rules of procedure consistent with academic due process and all provisions of this document.
• The accused has the right to challenge on the grounds of prejudice any member of the Hearing Committee sitting on their case. If an accused makes such a challenge, the Hearing Committee shall deliberate in private to determine whether cause exists. By a majority vote of the members of the tribunal (excluding the member being challenged), a member shall be removed from the case and replaced by a member of the board designated by the chair of the Judicial Board. In addition, the accused may exercise a challenge directed at the entire panel, in which case the challenge shall be made to the chair of the University Judicial Board, who shall excuse the panel challenged and refer the accused’s case to the next panel in rotation.

The Right of Appeal
• In cases heard by the University Judicial Board, there will be no appeal when the accused is acquitted, except in cases of harassment or discrimination, in which case a complainant may appeal the accused’s acquittal.
• A student or administrator who is not a member of the faculty convicted by the University Judicial Board may appeal to the president, or in the president’s absence, the provost, in which case such appeal shall be solely on the record of the proceedings before the Hearing Committee. Argument or appeal shall be on written submission, but the president may, in addition, require oral argument.
• A member of the faculty convicted by the University Judicial Board may appeal to the Faculty Hearing Committee authorized under the provisions for Academic Freedom and Tenure of Duke University.

Status of the Accused
Charges must be prepared without delay following the alleged commission of the offense. Pending final verdict on charges against the accused (including appeal), their status shall not be changed, nor their right to be on campus to attend classes suspended, except that the president or provost may impose an interim suspension upon any member of the university community who demonstrates, by their conduct, that their continued presence on the campus constitutes an immediate threat to the physical well-being or property of the members of the university community or the orderly functioning of the university. The imposition of interim suspension requires that the suspended individual shall immediately observe any restriction placed upon them by the terms of the suspension. The suspended individual shall be entitled to a hearing within three (3) days before the Hearing Committee on the formal charges. If the individual requires additional time to prepare their case before the Hearing Committee, they shall be entitled to an informal review of the decision imposing interim suspension by a three-person committee chosen from the members of the University Judicial Board by its chair. Interim suspension is an extraordinary remedy which will be invoked only in extreme cases where the interest of the university and members of its community require immediate action before the Hearing Committee can adjudicate formal charges against the suspended individual. If interim suspension is imposed and the accused is later found innocent, the university shall seek restitution as provided by the Hearing Committee with respect to the student’s academic responsibilities incurred during the period of suspension.

Civil and Criminal Courts
Members of the university community may be subject to civil or criminal proceedings in a local court. The president may initiate legal action seeking injunctive or other civil relief, or file criminal charges, when it is necessary to protect the person or property of members of the university community, or the orderly functioning or property of the university. Such action may be in addition to the filing of formal charges before the University Judicial Board and/or interim suspension.

Sanctions

A Hearing Committee of the University Judicial Board shall have the power to impose the following penalties upon students:

- Expulsion. Dismissal from the university with the recommendation that the person never be readmitted.
- Suspension. Dismissal from the university and from participation in all university activities for a specified period of time after which the subject may apply for readmission.
- Disciplinary Probation. Placing a student on a probationary status for a specified period of time, during which conviction of any regulation may result in more serious disciplinary action.
- Exclusion from participation in extracurricular activities. Without limiting the generality of that penalty, such restrictions might involve participation in any collegiate athletics, or any public participation or performance in the name of the university. However, a hearing committee may not exclude a person from performance of the duties of an elective office, but may make such a recommendation to the appropriate organization. This penalty may be imposed by itself or in addition to any of the other enumerated penalties.
- Censure. Written reprimand for violation of the specified regulation, including the possibility of more severe disciplinary sanction in the event of conviction for the violation of the same or one of equal seriousness within the period of time stated by the reprimand.
- Admonition. By an oral statement to the offender that they have violated the university rules or have been in contempt of the board.
- Restitution. Payment for all, or a portion of property damage caused during the commission of an offense. This penalty may be imposed by itself, or in addition to any of the other penalties.
- Fines. Payment of reasonable sums to be determined by a hearing committee. This penalty may be imposed by itself, or in addition to any of the other penalties.
- Exclusion from social activities where the nature of the violation so indicates including, but not limited to, curfews or other revocation of upperclass privileges.

A Hearing Committee of the University Judicial Board shall have the power to impose the following penalties upon faculty members and administrative personnel not subject to the provisions of the Personnel Policy Manual.

- Dismissal. Dismissal or termination of appointment.
- Censure.
- Admonition.
- Restitution.
- Fines.

Other Powers

The Hearing Committee may recommend to the university that it seek restitution with respect to the accused's university responsibilities incurred during a period of suspension or during the period when a hearing has been conducted or shall make such other nonpunitive recommendations with respect to the accused as it shall deem appropriate.

Records

The board shall promptly arrange a policy of keeping its own records, subject to the university policy on confidentiality.

Excusal of Members of the University Community from University Obligations

Any member of the university community whose presence is required at a hearing shall be excused from the performance of any university responsibilities which would normally be performed at the time when their presence is
APPENDIX B – OPTIONAL, ONE-TIME FACULTY-STUDENT RESOLUTION PROCESS FOR CASES OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY INVOLVING UNDERGRADUATES

This option for resolving cases of academic dishonesty is reserved for first-time, minor infractions by Duke undergraduates. The faculty member must first contact the Office of Student Conduct to discuss the appropriateness of this option with respect to the nature of the offense, as well as to learn of any prior violations by the student. If there is no record of prior offenses and the case appears to be one that, if adjudicated by a hearing panel, would result in probation or a sanction less severe than probation, it may be resolved between the faculty member and the student. Otherwise, the case must be forwarded to the Office of Student Conduct.

A faculty-student resolution may result in a reduced grade on the assignment, a reduced grade in the course, additional assignments, and/or other educational initiatives. (The outcome must be agreed upon by both parties.)

The faculty member must report the outcome(s) of a faculty-student resolution to the Office of Student Conduct for record keeping. This resolution will not become part of the student’s external disciplinary record unless there is a second violation, at which time both cases will be noted on the student’s disciplinary record.

PROCESS

- The faculty member shall first contact the Office of Student Conduct to discuss the appropriateness of this option with respect to the nature of the offense, as well as to learn of any prior violations. Staff in the Office of Student Conduct may be reached at 919-684-6938.
- If the student has no record of prior offenses and the case appears to be one that, if adjudicated by a hearing panel, would result in probation or a sanction less severe than probation, it may be resolved between the faculty member and the student.
- The faculty member shall meet with the student and present any information relevant to the case.
- The student shall have an opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- If the faculty member believes that academic dishonesty has occurred, the faculty member should complete a Faculty-Student Resolution form, including the proposed outcome, and present this form to the student. The form may be found on the website of the Office of Student Conduct website at studentaffairs.duke.edu/conduct/undergraduate-disciplinary-system/types-resolution.
- Upon receipt of the proposed resolution, the student has 96 hours to consider and seek advice on whether to accept responsibility and agree to the resolution.
- If the student agrees to the resolution, she/he should sign the resolution form in the presence of the faculty member. The faculty member should then forward a copy of the form to the Office of Student Conduct (Box 90893).
- If the student does not accept the proposed resolution, the faculty member should refer the case to the Office of Student Conduct.

APPENDIX C – ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION POLICY

POLICY

The Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs or designee may take administrative action(s) against an undergraduate student (or, if pursuant to the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy or for an alleged violation of university policy which could be bias-/hate-related, a graduate or professional student) and/or a student group to protect the health, safety, or welfare of the university community or any member of it. Administrative action includes, but is not limited to, a “no contact” directive, removal of privileges, removal from or relocation within the residential community, suspension of activity, and/or suspension from the university. If administrative action is issued while a disciplinary action is pending, such action may remain in effect until the disciplinary process is resolved.
PROCEDURE

• Any member of the university community who has reason to believe that a student or student group may pose a threat to the health, safety, or welfare of the university community or any member of it should contact the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs (VPSA) or other staff within Student Affairs as appropriate.

• The VPSA or designee, in consultation as necessary with the Behavioral Assessment Team and/or other appropriate individuals/agencies, will conduct a review of available information and, where necessary and appropriate, gather additional information.

• Based on the available information, the VPSA or designee shall determine whether administrative action is warranted based on the nature of the risk posed by the student, the probability of harm to the university community, and whether reasonable alternatives would significantly mitigate the risk. The VPSA or designee will prepare a written statement identifying and explaining the administrative action(s).

• A student who is subject to an administrative action has three business days from receipt of the written statement to request a meeting with the VPSA or designee to contest the administrative action. Based on the information shared by the student in the meeting, the VPSA or designee shall consider whether any modification to the administrative action is warranted and communicate the decision to the student in writing no later than three days after the meeting. The administrative action may be, at the discretion of the VPSA or designee and subject to the risk determinations as noted above, in force through the period of requested reconsideration of the administrative decision.

APPENDIX D – FRATERNITY AND SORORITY RECOGNITION

Recognition is the formal process by which Duke University permits a fraternity or sorority to function on campus, conduct membership/intake activities, and be considered part of the university. For a fraternal organization to obtain recognition through Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL), it must:

• Operate under a constitution and bylaws that have been approved by FSL and one of the recognized Governing Councils: Interfraternity Council (IFC), Multicultural Greek Council (MGC), National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC), Panhellenic Association (Panhel).

• Demonstrate sound financial standing.

• Be affiliated with an inter/national fraternity or sorority.

• Present an initial membership list of at least three (3) currently registered, degree-seeking students who are not on academic or disciplinary probation. (While Duke recognizes that some organizations share membership with other colleges and universities, this relationship is prohibited by FSL.)

• Identify a person, who is not an undergraduate, to serve as the chapter advisor.

• Maintain general liability insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence, $3,000,000 aggregate.

The university does not recognize local chapters.

Fraternity and Sorority Life determines, with the input of the appropriate governing council, the status of recognized fraternity and sorority chapters. If a chapter no longer meets any or all of the above-stated conditions for full recognition or, as a provisionally recognized group, is not making sufficient progress towards full recognition, then full or provisional recognition may be withdrawn or the chapter may be placed on probation with suspended privileges. In addition, FSL and the governing councils support any sanctions given to chapters by their inter/national headquarters office.

The suspension of privileges may include, but is not limited to:

• Reservation and free usage of campus space.

• Participation in new member recruitment and intake activities.

• Ability to host/co-sponsor events on and off campus.

• Participation in community-wide events, education programs, intramural sports and service/philanthropy initiatives.

• Membership in one of the recognized governing councils.

FRATERNITY AND SORORITY MEMBERSHIP RECRUITMENT/INTAKE

Membership may be extended to students in the spring of their first year. Upperclass students may receive bids, or invitations to join recognized chapters, at any time during the academic year.
APPENDIX E – RECOGNIZED STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Each student organization adds to the social, cultural, and intellectual environment of Duke. The university recognizes the contributions that student organizations make to the quality of life on campus and strives to support its own mission to “attending not only to [students’] intellectual growth but also to their development as adults committed to high ethical standards and full participation as leaders in their communities” (Duke University Mission Statement, 2001).

Recognition of any organization is not to be interpreted as an endorsement by the university of the purpose, activities, political position, or point of view of the organization.

RECOGNITION SOURCES

The university identifies two (2) primary recognition sources for undergraduate student organizations: Student Organization Finance Committee (SOFC) and departmental.

1. The Student Organization Finance Committee (SOFC) of the Duke Student Government (DSG) is the major student organization recognition source; the financial, risk management, and policy authority for these organizations rests with the Vice Provost/Vice President for Student Affairs.

2. All prospective student organizations must set up a meeting with Duke Launch. You can visit their website at sites.duke.edu/dukelaunch. The Launch Agents serve as your first step in the recognition process and help you refine your organization before it meets with the Student Organization Finance Committee.

Standards of Recognition. All undergraduate student organizations must align with the following basic standards:

- Have a unique mission that differentiates it from other recognized organizations.
- Be comprised of at least ten (10) members. All members are Duke-affiliated and at least fifty percent (50%) are currently enrolled undergraduate students. All leadership positions must be occupied by undergraduate students.
- Have a president, who oversees the operations and mission of the organization, and a treasurer, who oversees the financial health of the organization. These officer positions may be labeled differently within the organization but will be named as above for official university purposes. The position of the president must be voted in democratically through the organization. Both the president and the treasurer are responsible for attending and completing the required annual trainings offered through University Center Activities and Events (UCAE).
- Have a full-time faculty or staff member serve as an advisor. An organization advisor helps their organization grow and develop its activities in the spirit of the highest ideals of the Duke mission.
- List current mission statement, officers, and advisor on the official student organization directory DukeGroups (dukegroups.com) annually. The Division of Student Affairs maintains the official list of student organizations regardless of recognition source.
- Create and keep a constitution that defines:
  - The official name of the organization
  - The recognition source of the organization (SOFC or Department)
  - The mission of the organization (must not violate any university, local, state, or federal policies/laws)
  - The requirements of membership in the organization
  - Acknowledgment that the actions and opinions of the group are independent of Duke University and do not reflect the actions and opinions of the university as a whole
  - Alignment with the Duke University equal opportunity (non-discrimination) statement: Duke University prohibits discrimination and harassment, and provides equal (membership) opportunity without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, sex, genetic information, or age
  - Maintain a positive balance of funds in any university-granted financial account

For more information about student organizations please visit University Center Activities and Events (UCAE) in the Bryan Center or online at studentaffairs.duke.edu/ucae.

3. University schools, departments, and offices may also recognize student organizations or student ventures in congruence with their standards; the financial, risk management, and policy authority for these organizations or ventures rest with the department/program of the entity that bestows recognition.

All student groups are required to be knowledgeable of and abide by policies in the UCAE Student Organization handbook available on the UCAE website. UCAE reserves the right to update policies.
APPENDIX F – INFORMATION AND RESOURCES CONCERNING SUBSTANCE USE

HEALTH EFFECTS OF ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUGS

Psychoactive drugs are a class of drugs most frequently used socially or recreationally (and often illegally). These drugs act on the central nervous system (CNS), or more specifically the brain, creating altered states of consciousness. They may increase CNS activity (stimulants, such as cocaine, Ritalin, amphetamines), decrease CNS activity (depressants, such as alcohol, barbiturates, tranquilizers, opiates), cause the creation of illusions (hallucinogens, such as LSD, peyote, mushrooms, PCP), or have a combined effect (marijuana). Every drug has multiple effects on the brain and the body. Addiction to any of these substances is a disease that affects the sufferer mentally, emotionally, physically, and spiritually. It can also have a profound effect on those closest to the addicted person.

SHORT TERM OR ACUTE EFFECTS

- Impaired judgment, which can lead to physical injuries, accidents, violent behavior or unpredictable mood swings;
- Acute psychotic episodes;
- Risky sexual situations, which may result in impaired sexual response, sexually transmitted diseases, unplanned pregnancy, sexual assault, rape;
- Hangovers;
- Increased nervousness;
- Tremors;
- Shortness of breath;
- Anxiety/panic reactions;
- Reduced energy and stamina;
- Digestive problems (nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, ulcer irritation), dehydration, halitosis;
- Cardiovascular changes;
- Seizures;
- Loss of consciousness; or
- Death.

Effect on Financial Aid
Under the 2000 reauthorization of the Higher Education Act, eligibility for federal student aid is jeopardized for students convicted of a drug possession charge. For a first conviction, eligibility for aid may be suspended for one year; two years for a second; permanently for a third. Eligibility is restored once a student completes a drug rehabilitation program or has the conviction overturned.

For complete information regarding North Carolina state laws governing alcohol, consult the North Carolina General Statutes, Chapter 18B. Criminal penalties for a violation of these laws include a misdemeanor conviction, community service, possible loss of driver's license, and/or fines. Repeat violations incur greater penalties. The complete statutes are available online at ncga.state.nc.us/gascripts/Statutes/Statutes.asp.

Highlights of State Statutes

It is illegal for anyone less than 21 years of age to:

- Possess or consume malt beverages, unfortified or fortified wine, spirituous liquor, or mixed beverages;
- Purchase or attempt to purchase malt beverages, unfortified or fortified wine, spirituous liquor, or mixed beverages.

It is illegal for anyone (regardless of age) to:

- Aid or abet another in the unlawful sale, purchase, or possession of malt beverages, unfortified or fortified wine, spirituous liquor, or mixed beverages;
- Fraudulently use identification in obtaining or attempting to obtain alcoholic beverages.

APPENDIX G – PATIENT PRIVACY

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, or HIPAA, includes a privacy rule that creates national standards to protect individuals’ personal health information. These standards were implemented by the Duke Health Enterprise on April 14, 2003.

Duke Student Health, Counseling and Psychological Services, and the Office of Gender Violence Prevention and Intervention comply with these standards. All incoming students are asked to review and electronically sign the HIPAA notice as part of the immunization and health history process. Students who have not yet received the Notice of Privacy Practices brochure, which describes how medical information may be used and disclosed and how one can get access to this information, will receive this at the first visit.

APPENDIX H – DECORATIONS, HOLIDAYS, AND THEME PARTIES

DECORATIONS POLICY

This section of the policy applies to all Duke University facilities. All students, visitors, and employees must adhere to this policy when planning a theme party, event meeting, or decorating any work area. If you have any questions as to whether your decorations fall within the limits allowed by this policy, please contact the OESO Fire & Life Safety (OESO F&LS) Office at 919-684-5609 at least three business days prior to the date of the actual event/party or placement of the decorations. Community members are expected to self-evaluate their compliance with this policy. OESO F&LS will not necessarily review every proposal, but all conditions are subject to review by OESO F&LS. Any items not meeting the requirements will have to be immediately removed. Conditions are also subject to enforcement by the City of Durham Fire Prevention Division and/or changes in requirements due to new codes and standards. For any requests that do not comply with this policy, community members shall request a review by OESO F&LS prior to installation.

Combustible decorative materials that are suspended from the wall must not exceed 10% of the specific wall to which they are attached.

Decorative Materials. Decorative materials include, but are not limited to, curtains, draperies, fabrics, streamers, bulletin boards, artwork, posters, photographs, paintings, etc. Note: Decorative items shall not extend past the perimeter of a bulletin board or approved wall area.

Suspended. Suspended means hanging, taped, tacked, or attached in any manner that any portion of the item can be easily lifted away from the wall, creating an air gap.

Exempt Materials. Exempt (decorative) materials include wall coverings, ceiling coverings, floor coverings, ordinary window shades, interior finish, and materials 0.025 inch or less in thickness applied directly to and adhering to a substrate.

Prohibited Conditions:

- Explosive, highly flammable, combustible fibers, or any other materials which pose an unusually high hazard.
- Combustible Fibers. Combustible fibers include, but are not limited to, readily ignitable and free-burning materials in a fibrous or shredded form, such as cloth, cotton, hay, straw, corn fodder, dried flowers, bamboo, certain synthetic fibers and similar materials.

- Three-dimensional items attached to a wall.
- Anything covering or obstructing exits, access to/from, visibility of any fire/life safety fixture or system component (exit signs, exit doors, exit access doors, door handles, pull stations, fire extinguishers, strobe lights, etc.) in any manner.
- Easels or similar displays (“pop up,” free standing banners). Exception: Easels or similar displays may be permitted if they do not interfere with the means of egress and fire protection systems, but they must still meet the general 10% limits (e.g., outside of the clear width requirement, in an alcove, etc.).
- Hay bales and similar combustible items outside a building must not interfere with access to the public way.
- Decorations cannot be attached to any doors. Exception: For fire rated doors, informational room signage is permitted if it does not exceed 5% of the total surface area of the door (typically 8 ½” x 11”), attached to the door with adhesive only, not with screws or nails. Exception: For non-fire rated doors, informational room signage is permitted if it does not exceed 10% of the total surface area of the door (typically two areas of 8 ½” x 11” each), attached to the door with adhesive only, not with screws or nails.
- Items cannot be attached to or suspended from a ceiling.

Strategies. The amount of non-combustible decorations is not limited or restricted. Many printed materials can be made on glass, metal, etc. Specially manufactured products that meet Class A interior finish may be available as a substitute for combustible decorations, sometimes at no additional cost depending upon the vendor. Consider using a common network drive for informational notices instead of a physical bulletin board (e.g., “Electronic Bulletin Board”).

Limitations. Nothing in this policy is intended to supersede any regulatory requirements of officially recognized codes and standards.

HOLIDAY DECORATION POLICY

Trees shall meet all of the following requirements:

- Fire retardant - verification must be produced on request.

APPENDIX I – PATENTS AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Duke’s mission lies in the creation and dissemination of knowledge through (1) recognizing and acknowledging the right of intellectual property ownership, (2) encouraging the pursuit of patents and licenses, and (3) ensuring sufficient records are maintained.

Duke University is committed to the personal ownership of intellectual property rights by the creators of the intellectual works.

APPENDIX J – MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION

In accordance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, Duke University has developed a policy for notifying the designated emergency contact in DukeHub for a student who is determined to be missing.

A student may be deemed missing if it is reported to appropriate university officials (Duke Police, Residence Coordinator on-Call, or the Dean on-Call) that the student has been unreachable via personal contact, telephone, e-mail, or other means of electronic communication for 24 hours or more. If members of the Duke community believe that a student has been missing for 24 hours, it is critical that they report that information to the Duke University Police at (919) 684-2444. A Residence Coordinator on-Call or Dean on-Call who receives such a report will immediately report it to Duke University Police. Duke University will notify any missing student’s confidential contact(s), if provided, within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing. In the event a student is under 18 years of age and not emancipated, Duke University must notify a custodial parent or guardian within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing, in addition to notifying any additional contact person designated by the student. For all missing students, Duke University will notify the local law enforcement agency within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing, unless the local law enforcement agency was the entity that made the determination that the student is missing.

Upon determination by Duke University Police that a student is missing, the designated missing person contact will be notified as soon as possible, but no later than 24 hours after that determination that the student has been missing for 24 hours. The student’s custodial parent or guardian will also be notified if that person is not the designated missing person contact and the student is under 18 years of age and not an emancipated individual. Regardless of whether the student has identified a contact person, is above the age of 18, or is an emancipated minor, Duke University Police will inform local law enforcement (or the local law enforcement with jurisdiction) that the student is missing within 24 hours.

Duke provides the option for each student living in an on-campus student housing facility to identify, separate from an emergency contact, a contact person or persons to whom Duke will make notification within 24 hours of the determination that the student is missing. Students are encouraged to periodically review and update their emergency contact information in DukeHub. When students enter a separate “Missing Person” emergency contact or contacts in DukeHub, that information will remain confidential and shared only with appropriate university personnel involved with a missing person investigation and law enforcement, and may not be disclosed outside of a missing person investigation.
APPENDIX K – CONSEQUENCES OF COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material, including peer-to-peer file sharing, may subject you to criminal or civil liability. Punishment for this unauthorized use or distribution can be severe: violation of federal copyright laws can range from imprisonment to hefty fines. For instance, online infringement of copyrighted music can be punished by up to five years in prison and/or $250,000 in fines, and you may be held liable for damages up to $150,000 per infringed copyright. To learn more about Duke University’s policy on unauthorized peer-to-peer file sharing, including disciplinary actions that the university may take against students who engage in unauthorized distribution of copyright materials using the university’s information technology system, please visit the website of the Dean of Students Office at studentaffairs.duke.edu/dos/riaa-file-sharing, which provides additional information on the application of copyright law to peer-to-peer file sharing.
